Tour De Farce

by PAUL CONTESTABLE

The Smothers Brothers cut another smash album.

Two plus two sometimes equals two. Take two top notch singers, add two top notch comedians and you have the two Smothers Brothers. Their latest album Tour De Farce (American History and Other Unrelated Subjects) is their best effort yet.

A potpourri of musical farce and delightful comedy, the Mercury LP contains such ditties as Medicine Fred, The Measle Song, Since My Canary Died, Siblings, and American History IIA and IIB. You may not learn anything about American History, but you'll definitely have some laughs.

The Smothers Brothers are rapidly gaining fans of all ages. Their rare combination of musical and comedy talent is a perfect blend. Any one of their albums will spend plenty of time on your phonograph.

The queen of the keyboard, Del Wood is out again with another bright offering on the Mercury label called Roll Out the Piano. Her bouncy interpretations throughout this album make it a happy listening item.

Included are I Walk the Line, Heartaches by the Number, Alone With You, I'm Walking the Floor Over You, Night Train to Memphis, Silver vitality and enthusiasm of this group is displayed successfully as soloists as well as producing a four-part blend.

From the driving That Old Time Religion to the beautiful They Call the Wind Maria, the group roams through some top notch folk selections. The Mercury album also includes The Times I've Had, Doodlin', Mean Old World, By the Bay of Mexico, Manha de Carnival and five others. Impressive performance.

Dick Gregory breaks it up with his Colpix release So You See... We All Have Problems. The album touches all subjects and is a bundle of laughs. Gregory has really come into his own with this one.

Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers play selections from the new musical Golden Boy on the Colpix label in a fascinating display of imagination and superb artistry. The stereo version is particularly brilliant.

Various artists combine on the release, Dancing Discotheque, on the Mercury label. Various tempos are featured with David Carroll's It's a Wonderful World, Xavier Cugat's Sweet and Gentle, Quincy Jones' Desafinado and Watermelon Man, and Clebanoff's renditions of Days of Wine and Roses and Love For Sale. Also included are a ska, hully gully, mashed potato and others.

Robert Farnon Conducts My Fair Lady and some favorite standards on the Philips label. Known for his creativity in arranging and conducting, Farnon includes such tunes as Get Me To the Church on Time, Wouldn't It Be Lovely, On the Street Where You Live, Button Up Your Overcoat, Dancing in the Dark, and The Best Things in Life are Free.

All the Song Hits of the 4 Seasons instrumentally performed by the Bob Crewe Orchestra are contained in a new Philips album. With 40 beautiful strings and some of London's finest musicians, Crewe displays some infectious and beautiful music.

Tunes include Rag Doll, Big Girl's Don't Cry, Candy Girl, Sherry, and Huggin' My Pillow. Fascinating listening.

Christian Family Movement of St. Joseph's Church, Penfield, will hold a dance Jan. 22 at the Hospitality House from 9:30 p.m. till 12:30 a.m. for the benefit of St. Bridget's Church. Discussing plans are Mr. and Mrs. William Powers, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Savage.

Legion Of Decency

The following are the titles of the films reviewed this week to be used in their respective classifications of the Legion of Decency. Clip and save.

- Class A, Section 1
*Dear Brigitte
Mara of the Wilderness
 - Class A, Section 2
None But the Brave
 - Class A, Section 3
*Lipstick
 - Class A, Section 4
Zorba, the Greek
- Observation: This serious study of a "natural man" possessed of immense vitality and exuberance expounds a philosophy which falls short of a Christian view of life. For this reason, and also because of frequent coarseness in treatment, the film requires mature analysis.
- Note: An A-4 classification is given to certain films which, while not morally offensive in themselves, require caution and some analysis and explanation as a protection to the uninformed against wrong interpretations and false conclusions.
- Class B
Quick, Before It Melts
Objection: The conclusion of this frequently suggestive comedy tends to condone pre-marital sex.

Hobo Dance This Saturday

Holy Name Society and Rosary Guild members will sponsor a Hobo Dance at Annunciation parish hall Saturday, Jan. 16, beginning at 9 p.m. The Hobo committee asks for a "handout" from Father William Brien, curate. They are, from top, Fred Trippi, Russ Russo, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Crisci, Henry Mart and Mrs. Alvin Tozeski. Entertainment will be presented by Marcy Militano, Anthony Pavone, Mr. and Mrs. Crisci, Mrs. Tozeski, Mrs. Stephen DeLucia, Mrs. Rocco Nigro and Mr. Russo.

Dear Loretta Young

'Too Tidy Look'

By MISS LORETTA YOUNG

Hello Loretta:
The letter from the lady who thinks it's so important to keep her house in tip-top shape at all times burned me up. I think I'm in a better position to give advice since I am the mother of a very large family (14) and I'm happily married to boot. My two oldest are married, three are away at school, six attend local schools, and three are pre-school. I envy mothers who have all small children and beg them to take time to enjoy them now. Speaking from experience, they grow up so soon.

So what if the housework gets neglected a bit? Who will know it a few years later? I'm not saying the house should become a pig pen. It's just that no child will remember his happy moments at home by the "Too Tidy Look" in the house. Well, that's that.

on for the last three or four months. My neighbor's (my sister-in-law) children are always picking on my youngest daughter. Teasing her isn't enough; more often than not they top it off by hitting her. Both of them are 'older' than she is. The oldest is an eleven year old boy who is a good talker and can always manage to convince his mother that my daughter always started it. But I have watched these incidents and can see that these children are growing up with lack of respect for others.

It has gotten to the point where they can't pass our yard without teasing my child or calling her names. I don't know what to do about it. What can you do with parents who think they know all the angles and never correct their children? We would love to hear your reaction to our problem.

Dear "First Things First":
Thanks for the wise remarks. Your generosity indicates a large capacity to live and love and be happy.

Sincerely,
Loretta

Dear Loretta:
I'm losing all of my friends. They never call me, and when I phone them I can sense that they don't want to talk to me. In school I try to be friendly and cheerful to everyone but I am cut out of conversations. No one tells me what they do for excitement and I seldom get asked to join a group that is going out. During vacation I give to persons you want as friends, and less on what they give you in return. Here are a few rules that I have found helpful and effective. The basic thing is that to make friends you have to first be a friend. Act like a friend. And a friend is trustworthy and understanding. Don't make excessive demands. Don't connive! A friend is more interested in being a friend than in having a friend. Now it's up to you.

Sincerely,
Loretta

Dear Sort of Desperate:
If I were you, I'd concentrate more on what you can give to persons you want as friends, and less on what they give you in return. Here are a few rules that I have found helpful and effective. The basic thing is that to make friends you have to first be a friend. Act like a friend. And a friend is trustworthy and understanding. Don't make excessive demands. Don't connive! A friend is more interested in being a friend than in having a friend. Now it's up to you.

Sincerely,
Loretta

Dear "Don't Spare the Rod":
I'm sure it's obvious that you must talk to these parents and the meaning of this situation. This might take time, but for your comfort, think of this fact. Be grateful that it is not your daughter who is doing the teasing and being mean and daily learning to be meaner. Your daughter may be getting her feelings hurt occasionally and her arm bruised once in awhile but your in-laws' children are steadily bruising their souls and becoming emotional cripples who will have a tough time adapting to an adult world. In fact, it is possible that they may never recover from their bruises. God help the parent who does not correct his child!

Sincerely,
Loretta

Realism in Art Subject of Tour

INDIA: SR. CHRISTINE'S MIRACLE

HER FACE IS DRAWN BY WORK AND WORRY, BUT HER EYES TELL YOU SHE IS NOT AFRAID. "We are here to do God's work," Sister Christine says quietly. "Maybe God will work a miracle." In Paim-got-toor, Kerala State, south India, you wish Catholics in America could meet this frail, wonderful nun. She is Mother Provincial of 172 Sisters in a vast, developing mission area. You have seen her Sisters, their sleeves rolled up, feeding the hungry, disease-ridden, backwater villages. You have admired the way they teach the catechism. You know the trades the Sisters teach (dressmaking, cooking, nursing) will enable penniless girls someday to support themselves. "Can you do something to help us?" you hear Sister Christine ask. "Will you ask someone, please, to help us with the chapel for our novices?" The novices are girls in their late teens who are in training to be Sisters. They must be given rock-bottom spiritual formation: in years to come, the girls they will train have India's future in their hands. Will you help build the chapel? Name it for your favorite saint, in memory of your loved ones, if you build it all by yourself. It will cost (without furnishings) only $3,800. Send Sister Christine a small gift ($25, $15, $10, $5, $2) at least. For the neediest Catholics in the world (and the neediest Sisters) you'll be helping to work a "miracle."

"BE ZEALOUS. LIKE THE MISSIONARIES I MET IN INDIA." (Pope Paul to Student Priests)

DO GOD'S WORK IN '65

- TRAIN A NATIVE SISTER. For as long as she lives, she'll be your personal representative to lepers, orphans, cancer victims, the aging. Her training costs only $12.50 a month ($150 a year, $300 altogether). She will write to you.
 - FEED A FAMILY. Food is so scarce in Kerala State, south India, mothers and fathers riot for scraps to feed their children. You can feed a family FOR A MONTH for $10 ($120 for a year).
 - LET THE HOLY FATHER DECIDE. He'll use your Stringless Gift in any amount ($5,000 or $2) where it's needed most.
- MAKING A NEW WILL IN '65? The good you can do by remembering the missions goes to your credit eternally. Our legal title: CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION.
