Alhambra to Sponsor Sport Banquet

ALHAMBRA will honor the All-Catholic football team chosen from area schools at a banquet Jan. 26 at Schrafft's Motor Inn in Ridge Rd. Here Phil Randazzo, chairman, congratulates four of the players, Mike Meteyer from McQuaid, Bill Walker from Cardinal Mooney, George Kermis from Aquinas and Tom Bailey from Bishop Kearney High. Reservations may be made by calling HA 6-7378 or Al Salvaggio at LO 2-8340. Others to be honored are Dan Wegman, Jim Bunce, Jim Comparato, Dick Deleguardia and Tom Wilhelm from McQuaid, Tom Hughes, Dick Winterroth and Jim Catone from Aquinas.

Knights, Irish Win Doubleheader

McQuaid Triumphs 62-57

By JESS HEWITT

McQuaid Jesuit High's hard-working Knights put in some overtime again last Saturday, but finally went home with a 62-57 victory over West High in the first half of a War Memorial doubleheader.

It took one extra session for Ken Jones's team to nail down its eighth win of the season. Last time the Knights went into overtime, it was in a losing effort against Irondequoit, which comes to the McQuaid court this Saturday night for a return match. Since upending the Knights by a 50-46 count back in November, the Indians have had an up-and-down season in county league competition but still possess the good all-around height that gave McQuaid trouble in the first encounter.

Rebounding was one of the Knights' woes against West. The latter's trio of Bruce McDaniel, Dave Huyck (two of the city's top high jumpers in the track season) and Bob Morrison won the battle of the boards and led McQuaid on the scoreboard until well into the third quarter.

Then, with West up by a 38-34 score, McQuaid forged 9 points inside of two minutes for its only sustained offensive effort of the game. Mike Spiegel and Tom Blake tied it at 38-all with short jump shots, and Dan Wegman put McQuaid ahead on a fast break layup off Tony Leonardo's feed. Leonardo's foul shot and another goal by Spiegel gave the Knights a 5-point lead with only a minute left in the third period.

They were still ahead, 54-48, with the game in its last two minutes, but West rallied for 6 points and a tie. Both sides had chances to win on the foul line in regulation tiime, but McDaniel missed for West with 17 seconds left and John Stanley for McQuaid with 7 seconds, leaving the verdict to overtime.

West led briefly in the extra period on Dave Hollis's foul shot, but Stanley scored on a break for a 56-55 McQuaid edge.

Then it was Hollis again for West, driving in and scoring to put the Knights behind by one point with 55 seconds to go. They responded to the pressure with two baskets in the next 25 seconds, Spiegel getting both on layups from Stanley's passes and making a 3-point play out of the second one. Lance Compa's foul wrapped it up.

Leonardo, who exited on fouls in the fourth quarter, wound up the game's top scorer, with 20 points, while Spiegel, who didn't score at all in the first half, finished with 13.

In freshman action, McQuaid's frosh squad suffered their fifth loss as against three wins when they bowed to undefeated East, 61-56. Tom Elsbree, Brad Smith and Steve Hurley paced a second half rally by the Knights which overtook the East team only to fade in the last 3 minutes.

Aquinas Nicks Edison 48-44

By WHIT JOHNSON

Aquinas Institute's backboard kings trumped Edison Tech's jumping jacks before a generous crowd at the War Memorial last Saturday night to give the Irish their sixth win of the season.

Aquinas was ragged through the first period and shaky through the second when coach Jack Kelly tinkered with various player combinations. Close checking by both clubs, together with poor shooting and a slippery floor to boot, were a few factors contributing to a halftime score of 15-10, with the edge in favor of Edison.

But after the intermission, the Irish displayed the same sort of hard-nosed ball which carried them for the second straight year to the holiday invitational tournament title against East High School.

Jim Coffey, a 6-2 junior, made the scene in the third quarter and teamed up with big Jim Caverly to spark the Aquinas effort for 21 points, to close the gap, 34-31, at the third period stop.

Edison was led by sharp-shooting Eddie Butler and high jumping Fred Coley who kept their club in contention all season to duplicate their inter-scholastic title of last year.

However, Coffey's last ditch heroic dampened a spirited Edison for an upset. Behind by three at the three-quarter mark, the quick Irish and six big points by Coffey caught the man-for-man to-zone-to-zone switching Inventors in the last stanza. Pat DiNicola and Tom Sullivan kept the rally going to give the edge to Aquinas at the final whistle, 48-44.

Caverly, who registered 10 points against Edison last year, again led the Irish with 13 points. Five of his total came at the foul line in 12 attempts. He also grabbed 9 rebounds. He received double figure support from Jim Coffey, the third period sparkplug. Coffey pumped in five of six shots for an 83 per cent shooting average. DiNicola and Sullivan chipped in 8 each. Wayne Desbrow led in rebounds with 8 offensive and 5 defensive.

Tonight, Jan. 15, Aquinas travels to Carthage to take on the Carthage Central School quintet. This marks the first meeting of the two schools.

Tomorrow, Saturday, the Irish invade Watertown for a return engagement with the Hawks.

Aquinas defeated Watertown at the CYO, 73-48, early in the season.

Mooney vs. Kearney at Memorial

Basketball games between rival schools are usually hard fought and exciting contests which produce competition at its best. This Saturday night Cardinal Mooney High School will meet Bishop Kearney High School at the War Memorial in what promises to be an evening full of excitement.

Bishop Kearney High fields a tall, rugged ball club which has posted a 4 won and 4 lost record. The Kings have beaten Naples Central, a perennial Section 5 entry, Corpus Christi of Windsor, Ontario, Bishop Walsh of Olean and Monroe High of the city league. Its losses were to Assumption of Windsor, Gates Chili of the AA County League, Bishop Duffy of Niagara Falls and Bishop Gibbons, one of the best high school teams in the Schenectady area.

Cardinal Mooney fields a hustling outfit which has compiled a 6 won and 2 lost record. The Cardinals defeated Mt. Carmel of Auburn, Greece Arcadia twice, Baker Catholic of Lackawanna, Kendall Central and Bishop Gibbons of North Tonawanda. Its two losses were to St. Francis of Athol Springs and Mt. Carmel.

Each school has scorers that could break the game apart. Terry Murphy and Kevin Dugan have paced the Cardinals while Richie Greenwood, Walt Szarlacki, Tom Rood and Rick Coleman have hit consistently for the Kings.

The Big Kearney has strong rebounding in 6'4" Bob Case, 6'2" Walt Szarlacki, 6'5" Garry Camp, and 6'1" Tom Rood. Mooney relies on the efforts of 6'2" Tim Kier, 6'1" Jim Musclow, 5'11" Jim Kerth, 5'9" Otis Davis, and 6' Jim Harrinton.

Bishop Kearney, coached by capable Mike Spang, has never lost to Mooney in basketball since the series began. Last year, while playing on the Junior Varsity level, the Kings defeated the Cardinals in both games, winning the first 55-48 and taking the second 53-48.

A J.V. game will start at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity game will begin at 8 p.m.

Student tickets for the game will be available for 50 cents at either Cardinal Mooney or Bishop Kearney High Schools. All tickets purchased at the War Memorial will be $1.

Bishop Kearney High Tops Edison Matmen

Bishop Kearney's varsity wrestling team rose to the occasion with a magnificent performance last Friday at home to smash Edison Tech 29-18. There was little doubt about the outcome of the match as the Kings wiped out an early Tech lead with 3 consecutive pins.

In the 97 pound weight class, Don Vandenburg of Edison came from behind to defeat Pat Walsh 5-3. In the next match, Gene Oberst of the Kings built up a 13-3 lead over Bob Malara and pinned the latter with reverse half-nelson at 5:05.

Tom Ciacco of the Kings remained undefeated in regular season play as he dominated his match with John McFadden. Greg Brown of Kearney gave his team a 15-3 edge, putting Brian Vandenburg of Edison in hot water from the start.

The 129 pound match proved to be the most exciting of the night. In a see-saw struggle between Paul Arnold of Edison and Art Rogers, the former held an 8-6 lead going into the last period. However, Rogers gained a reversal with 30 seconds left in the match. Then, with but 3 seconds remaining he put Arnold on his back to gain the margin of victory.

Robert Faber of Edison then made it 18-6 as he defeated Pete Scott 9-4. Dan Oberst of the Kings put on another superb display of grappling, executing a reversal in the third period that left everyone speechless because of the rapidity with which he executed it. From there, he put on a half-nelson to defeat Dennis Powell 8-2.

The next match pitted two exceptionally strong grapplers against each other, John McLaughlin and Ray Mondschein of the Inventors. Like two immovable boulders they struggled, neither gaining command in a duel that ended in a 4-4 tie.

Tom Bailey of the Kings captured a 9-0 decision over Richard LoMoglio. Don Vella then gave his team a 29-8 lead as he beat Bill Brooks of Edison 4-2.

Then, in a too-little, too-late surge, the Inventors captured the last two matches by pins. Casper Pizzo finished off Don Brennan at 1:52. Then Frank Malara of Edison, losing 5-0, rolled Ed Habza over and pinned him at 1:59.

Oneonta Loses 63-58 To Fisher

St. John Fisher College cagers recuperated rapidly from a Friday night 86-56 drubbing at the hands of Brockport State at Brockport to edge Oneonta State at home Saturday by a 63-58 score. The split leaves the Fishermen with a 5-2 record for the season.

The Cardinals had an off night against Brockport. The Golden Eagles dominated the game from start to end. At halftime it was 39-20. Ron Thomas paced the winners with 24 points, two more than Mike Davids scored for St. John Fisher.

Although Saturday's game was close all the way, Coach Bobby Wanzer's quintet maintained control without too much trouble. It was a hard fought game which saw the referees kept busy with their whistles. The winners hit 23 of 35 attempts from the free throw marker.

Sophomores Ron Ashe and Brendan Carmody led the Fisher attack. Ashe had nine field goals and four charity tosses. Carmody made 10 of 16 free throw attempts and added four field goals for good measure.

Because of final semester examinations, the Cardinals will not play agaain until Jan. 29, when they will visit St. Andrew's Seminary for a return match. Fisher opened the season with a victory at home over the seminarians.

Spartans Lose To Brockport

St. Andrew's Seminary Spartans lost a basketball game to Brockport State College freshman 84-72 last Friday. The Spartans found trouble with their outside shooting and rebounding after the long holiday lay-off.

Trailing 41-33 at the half, Jim McSweeney kept the Spartans in the game with his four baskets and five foul points. The Spartans came within three points early in the second half.

The next game for the seminary club will be Friday at Veigel Business Institute in Newark.

St. Bona Auxiliary

St. Bonaventure Auxiliary was to meet at the AAUW, Wednesday, Jan. 13. The meeting was scheduled to feature a demonstration of ceramic decoration by Mrs. F. Kolb of Helen's Ceramic Studio.
