

Third Order Carmelite Lists Reception Rite

Our Lady of Victory Chapter of the Third Order Secular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel will meet on Sunday, Jan. 17, at 2 p.m. in Our Lady of Victory Church, 10 Pleasant St. Members will please note that the church meeting will be at 2 p.m. and that a business meeting will follow in the school hall at 3 p.m.

The chapter's spiritual director, Rev. Daniel McLaughlin, S.S.C.C., will conduct the church service and will receive as Ter-tiarists Mrs. Cecilia Whipple and Mrs. Mary Tofani, who have completed a novitiate year of study and instruction according to the Rule of the Carmelite Third Order.

Through profession in the Third Order, these new members now become actual members of the Carmelite Order and so participate in all the Masses, prayers, and good works of all its members throughout the world.

A plenary indulgence is gained on the day of profession by those being professed, under the usual conditions of Confession and Communion. This indulgence is, also, given to all Third Order members who attend the monthly conferences.

Renewal of Vows and Promises by members will be received by Father McLaughlin.

Following the business meeting in the school hall a Rule Meeting will be held for Novices and Postulants to be conducted by William Grille, Novice-master and Mrs. Catherine Clark, Novice-mistress.

Prior Joseph Latour announces the appointment to the Council of James Mensing and William Egan. Mensing, a former Prior, will serve as co-ordinator of the chapter's Scapular program by handling the purchasing and distribution of scapulars to local hospitals where they are given to the patients by several chapter members who make regular calls. Mrs. Elizabeth Strigi, who has assembled and sewed the scapu-

Aldo Beatini Requiem Offered By Priest-Brother

Seneca Falls—Solemn Requiem Mass for Aldo J. Beatini was offered by his brother, the Rev. Joseph Beatini, pastor of St. Francis' Xavier, Rochester in St. Patrick's Church, Jan. 7. Mr. Beatini, 50, of 94 Ovid St., died Sunday, Jan. 2, 1965 in Geneva General Hospital where he had been a patient for one day.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beatini. Active in civic and Catholic affairs, he was a member of the SMS, an Italian organization, Seneca Falls Committee of the Diocesan Laymen's Retreat League and the Block Club, a neighborhood organization. He was last employed by Seneca Falls Water Department at the Canoga Pump Station.

Surviving besides his priest-brother are his widow, Mrs. Victoria Pioli Beatini; two daughters, Mrs. Leonard Colavito of Palatine Bridge and Miss Adle Beatini at home; two brothers, Peter J. and Italo, both of Seneca Falls. Father Beatini gave the blessing at St. Columbkille Cemetery. Arrangements by Doran Funeral Home.
