New York-(RNS)-Ecumenical advance made since the late Pope John XXIII convened the Second Vatican Council have been "almost unbelievable," worshippers at St. Patrick's Cathedral were reminded as the week-long Chair of Unity

Octave observance got under way. Preaching at a Solemn Mass, Father Samuel Cummings, S.A., of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement (Graymoor Friars) at arrison, N.Y., pointed, to the Decree on Ecumeniism approved at the Vatican Council's third session last year.

The decree, which permits joint unity services, with Non-Catholic Christians, calls on Catholics to "gladly acknowledge and, esteem the truly Christian endowments found among our separated brethren," Father Cummings stated.

Particularly during the Christian Unity Octaye, Father Cummings concluded, Catholics should "stress the spiritual bonds that unite us rather than the obstacles that divide us."

Their sufferings were intense, their poverty dire, "to beg they were unable," but to dig they were not ashamed. 40-Abstra being 42-Crave

What do you suppose they turned up in their excavations at the very point where they had pitched their tent? The ruins of the first cathedral that was built in that land a thousand years before. Was it by accident that they were led to this spot? There are no accidents in the spiritual life. The Province of God has directed them to the together two strings of time, the beginning of the Church in that land's distant past and its re-beginning in the present.

Suppose you had bought the tent for these priests, or an ax, a shovel or a cot. How happy you would be to share in this evident manifestation of God's overruling Providence. But the same opportunity is given to you every day! We know you have to build churches and schools in rich America, but you are part of the Church in the poor mission lands as well. The need is much greater there. The Holy Father said that you were to aid him "first and principally" in this great work. We may never convince you to aid him principally, but may we convince you to aid him first? At the beginning of every day, from now on, put at least a penny into a box and as you do it say the prayer: "Thy kingdom come!" Send your sacrifices to us and we will send them to the Holy Father.

Then I was given some money which I knew I should save for college, but went down instead to get the sweater. As I was deciding which color I needed most, I thought of Christ saying, "I was maked and you clothed me," and I knew that I didn't need it at all. My heart would not let me wear it while Jesus is suffering in mission lands."... to a man who is working while the light lasts for $50 "for the poor of the world, to thank God for being so good to me in the past year. I had the health to work all year-with a little overtime too-and as I have emphysema I never know how much longer I will live."

Do you pride youself on being "up on the news?" Then ask yourself this question: "How much do I know about what is happening on today's frontiers of the Church?"
