Nazareth Senior Wins Science Research Honor

Evelyn Ann Dom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dom, 140 Roser Street, was chosen as one of the members of the Honors Group in the Twenty-fourth annual Talent Search for the Westinghouse Science Scholarships and Awards on the basis of a national test and completion of a project named Absorption Mechanism in Plant Roots.

In her project Evelyn attempts to prove the mechanism involved in the absorption of nutrients by the plant. The theory is that as positive ions are taken up by the roots an equivalent amount of hydroxide ions are released These changes in hydrogen ion and hydroxide ion concentrations can be determined by a pH meter and the changes in the other ions are determined colorimetrically. Evelyn developed her project under the direction of Sister Maria, teacher of chemistry and physics at Nazareth Academy.

Evelyn was first seriously introduced into scientific research in her freshman year working with another Westinghouse honors group member under the guidance of Sister Muriel. During her Freshman year she won an Honorable Mention for her project entered at the Brockport Science Congress. During her Junior Year she won a Second Prize in Chemistry at the Brockport Science Congress.

Evelyn is a winner of two national Latin certificates and has had a poem published in a national anthology. Currently she is working on the yearbook staff and is president of the Future Scientists of America Club at Nazareth. For the past three years she has been a member of the weekly science seminar for superior students held at Mercy High School. She has been secretary of this group this year. Evelyn is third in a graduating class of 432.

This is the second year in succession that Nazareth Academy has one of her students a member of the Honors group in the Westinghouse Science Talent Search, which includes the top 10 per cent of 3000 students taking the test throughout the United States. Last year's winner was Ursula De Vonis, who is studying chemistry at Nazareth College. Evelyn plans to attend Nazareth College to study biology in order to prepare for a career in medical technology.
