

Policemen's Wives List Fashion Show

Newly organized Rochester Policemen's Wives Auxiliary will conduct a Spring Fashion Show in the Public Safety Building, second floor auditorium, Wednesday, Feb. 17 at 8 p.m.

Fashions from the Style Shop, Webster will be presented by Miss "Em" Sutter. Models will be 20 attractive wives of Rochester policemen and their teenage daughters. Refreshments will be served. Donation, $1 at door. Reservations are being made with Mrs. Adele Wallik, club president, CL 4-5931.

The auxiliary in appreciation for outstanding assistance given their husbands during the July 1964 weekend of civil disobedience presented cash gifts to the Salvation Army and St. Michael's Church, Clinton Ave. North.

Loreto House Attracts Nine Converts

Nine Negro children baptized last week by Father Francis H. Vogt, St. Bridget's pastor, received their early impetus toward the Catholic Church through Loreto House. This is a neighborhood project originated by Isabelle M. Dolan, 132 Hand St.

Loreto House is a multifaceted approach which provides an arts, manners and morals school for children of the neighborhood. Sparked by Miss Dolan, who moved to Hand Street precisely because she wanted to do something constructive in the field of race relations, it now includes a number of volunteers.

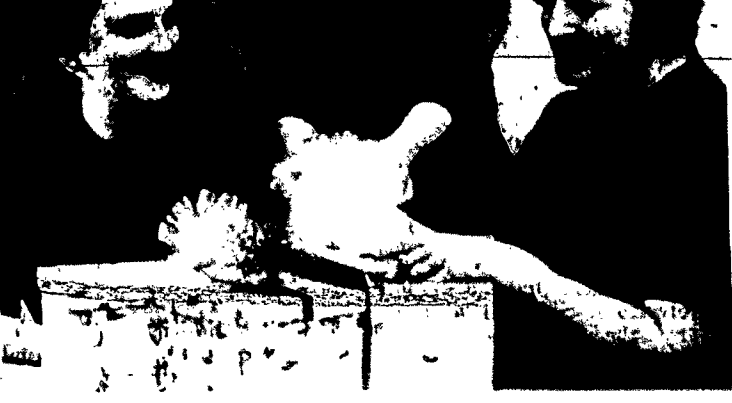

Catholic in inspiration, the program is willing to serve families of any religion, with varied projects aimed at strengthening family ties and strengthening religious devotion.

The nine children baptized were Frank Robinson, Ronald Hall, Darryl Hall, Argie Green, Franklin Lee, Dallas Lee, Eric Willburn, Lillie Lee and Stephanie Lee.

To provide the children and parents of Hand Street and the immediate neighborhood, Miss Dolan stated that the newly formed St. Peter Claver Guild, made up of friends and volunteers of Loreto House would embark on a new venture. Its 5-point baptismal After-care program will include:

- 1. Weekly instruction at the Cenacle Convent; a daily Mass
- 2. Sunday Bible study; St. Bridget's released-time instruction and a "Morals through Art" program.

Prior to their baptism, the nine children took part in a special Bible service, stressing the meaning of Baptism, conducted by Father Benedict Ehmann, pastor of St. Michael's church. Following their baptism, they were entertained along with their parents and sponsors by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yagy at their home on 13 Durgin St.

High School Forensics

The Aquinas Institute Varsity debating team captured first place Jan. 29 and 30 at the Canisius College Forensic Festival in Buffalo, New York. Debating the control of nuclear weapons, the team received three trophies for their efforts.

Seniors Thomas Farrell and James Hendrick combined on the affirmative side to post a 5-0 record and receive the best affirmative team award. Senior Robert Craig and Junior David Hill, debating the negative side, won 4 and lost 1, being judged the second place negative team. The two teams combined to post a 9-1 record, topping 52 schools from 5 states. As a result of this victory, Aquinas has been awarded four scholarships to the Canisius College Summer Debate Workshop.

The Aquinas debaters were accompanied by Mr. Gordon J. DeFond, the director of speech and debate at Aquinas.

Aquinas and McQuaid debating teams won first place on Saturday, Feb. 6 at the fourth meeting of the RADL held at Victor High School, Victor, N.Y. in their respective divisions.

On the JV level, the McQuaid team posted a 7-1 record to gain first place. The affirmative team of Joseph Combs and Robert Keenan had a perfect day winning all four debates; while the negative team of Tim Collins and Keven Hennessy lost one debate. Second and third places were one by Eastridge High School.

In the Novice division, The Aquinas "A" team, composed of George DeRoller and James Doyle on the affirmative and Gerard Aiman and Michael DeLuizo of the negative, captured first place with eight wins and no losses. The Aquinas "B" team took second place winning seven and losing one; while a six-two win-loss record gave Eastridge High novice team third place.

The final meeting of the RADL will be held at Cardinal Mooney High School on March 13.

Fr. Shannon To Speak At UR Newman Club

New insights into the New Testament will be offered by Father William Shannon in an 8-weeks Thursday night series to be given at the University of Rochester. The series is sponsored by the Newman Club of the U. of R.

Father Shannon is professor of Theology at Nazareth College. He lectured on the Old Testament in the first semester and will now move on to the new.

Newman moderator Rev. L. John Hedges announced the titles of the series as follows:

- 1. What is Gospel truth?
- 2. The Acts of the Apostles.
- 3. St. Mark—the first Gospel.
- 4. Infancy Narratives.
- 5. Passion Narratives.

The Scripture talks are in addition to the regular Wednesday evening seminars on topical subjects, which the Newman Club is currently offering.

Resurrection Narratives.
7. The Fourth Gospel.
8. The Apocalypse.

The lectures will be held in Gannett Lounge, located in the Women's Residence Hall. First talk will be on Thursday, Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. and each Thursday evening thereafter for 8 weeks.

Father Hedges explained that the public is invited, and there is no admission charge.
