Kegler Wins St. Boniface Award

Bowling champion Steve Nowicki was named 1965 Award recipient of the St. Boniface Men's Club. The engraved plaque commemorating the award was presented to the 21-year old kegler, who is a senior at St. John Fisher College, at a Father and Sons Sports Night at St. Boniface. The award is made to an outstanding local sports personality each year. About 230 fathers and sons attended the dinner. The guest list was a who's who of the Rochester sports world: George Sisler, Jr., Bobby Wanzer, Sammy Urzetta, Lyle Brown, Don Smith, Al Masino, Fred Pestorious, Mike Gunn, and Jack Button. WHEC sportscaster Chuck Stevens, at right in photo, emceed the affair. Entertainment included a movie of the 1964 World Series and a bowling exhibition by Nowicki.

Sue Warden Wins Silver Skates Crown

Sue Warden-skated to her second title in the annual International Silver Skates Championships at Lake George last weekend. The 13-year-old stu-dent at Good Counsel School took first place in all three events, the 220, 440 and oneixth mile to take the title in the juvenile girls class.

She has won every meet she has entered this year including the U.S. Open Championship and the National Outdoor Speed Skating Championship.

Rosemary Callipare, 8, finished as co-champion in the midget girls class. A student at St. John the Evangelist School in Greece, Rosemary shared the championship with Debbie La-Bombard of Plattsburg.

Aquinas Tops McQuaid Finmen

Aquinas Institute chalked up ts 11th victory of the season when the Little Irish dunked McQuaid Jesuit High, 54-41, last Saturday at the Catholic Youth Organization pool. This marked Aquinas' second win over the McQuaid finmen this season.

Seven pool records were estabished in the meet. Co-captain Frank Messey paced the victors, winning the 100-yard butterfly event in 1:12 and assisting his teammates to capture the 200yard medley relay.
