Third Order Open House In Geneva

Geneva—Immaculate Heart Fraternity, Third Order of St. Francis recently scheduled an "Open House" to acquaint the greater Geneva area with the aims and purposes of the third order. The event took place Feb. 16 in St. Stephen's School hall.

MRS. JAMES PEDULLA was chairman of the evening and presented the panel members for the first half of the program. The panel discussion included the following participants: Miss Theresa McGrain from Seneca Falls, Miss Mary Panetti, Mr. Herman Frahs and Mr. Michael Simone all of Geneva.

Each panelist gave a talk on what the Third Order means to them in relation to their particular vocation in life.

Vocations represented were: social worker, clerk typist, meat cutter and businessman. Mr. Michael Simone is also a member of the Geneva City Council. Immediately following their talks 1 questions arose from the audience which were in turn answered by the panelists.

Following the panel discussion an explanation of the various apostolic projects of the fraternity was held. The projects were explained with the help of various tertiaries who each gave a brief talk of a different project. Each project was further explained by the use of a display board which was especially designed and constructed for the event.

Work of the various committees were explained by the following: Miss Florence Hoag, Religious Instructions for Retarded Children; Mrs. Georgette Murphy, Mission Project; Miss Diane Perry, Altar Linen Committee; Mrs. Joseph Addona and Miss Theresa McGrain, Willard State Hospital Project; Mrs. Anne Miltz, Cordeliers.

Mercy Soph Train For Leadership

To be good leaders in future society the Soph Christian Challenge group at Mercy is aiming at this ultimate goal for its thirty-five members. These girls have been participating in a training program since September under the direction of Sister Mary Richard and Miss Jacqueline Terhaar, moderators of the group.

The Soph Christian Challenge is a learning or training process in preparation for the junior-senior Christian Leadership Program. It stresses development of personality, responsibility, and public speaking.

Qualified leadership is the basic objective. The "how" of conducting meetings is practiced by each girl when she is given an opportunity to act as chairman of an entire meeting. Since January, the chairman has planned as well as conducted the meetings, disclosed Sister Richard.

Each member has an apostolate in which she strives to put her leadership to work. The Soph Christian Challenge Group has been in charge of or has aided projects, like the membership drive for Apostleship of Prayer, Christmas cards, Christmas baskets, and the closed Retreat at the Cenacle.

Guest speakers form a part of the agenda. Mrs. Gerard Strauss, a teacher at St. Ann's School, spoke on "Leadership in the Home." "Public Speaking" was the topic senior Julie Tierney discussed. Miss Terhaar covered "Group Dynamics" (techniques of conducting a buzz session.)

At Business Meet

Judy Meyer and Kathleen Dwyer, seniors and business majors at St. Agnes High School, have been chosen to accompany Sister Marie Margaret, principal; Sister Dorothy Ellen, vice-principal; Sister Marie Matthew, guidance counselor; and Sister Theresa Daniel, chairman of the business department, to "Education Night" at the Towne House Motor Inn next Monday evening, Mar. 1.

"Education Night" is an annual meeting sponsored by the Rochester chapter of the Administrative Management Society. Its purpose is to promote articulation among young people heading for the field of business, their teachers, and those

God Love You

Most Reverend
Fulton J. Sheen

Everyone has his "weak-moments" when sin comes easy. Esau was "tired" when he sold his spiritual birthright for a bowl of porridge (Gen. 25:29). Cain had his weak moment when jealousy took hold of him and he murdered his brother (Gen. 4:5-8). David had his weak moment when he saw Bathsheba in her bathhouse, and then murdered her husband in order to marry her (II Kings 11:25; 17:28). Peter had his weak moment when, in a conversation with a young woman, he denied his Master (Mark 14:66-72). Aneas and Sapphira had their weak moments when they boasted they had given all their property to the Church and had not (Acts 5:1-10).

No chain is stronger than its weakest link. But such weak moments are tests of your faith. Paradise can be lost in Paradise; traitors are made even in daily companionship with Christ, as was Judas. And yet, St. Paul tells us that "power is made perfect in infirmity." (2 Cor. 12:9). Sometimes a tooth that is filled is stronger than it was before.

When we know we are ignorant, we can learn. When we are weak, we can do two things: 1. Call on Christ when we need strength beyond our power, as sinking Peter did. The Lord does not come as a Physician except to those who are ill. 2. Make up for our weak moments by strong moments of sacrifice. How seldom we atone for our sins! Many today suffer from abnormal guilt psychoses because they never atoned for their real guilt. There is nothing like a heavy dose of penance to keep a sinner healthy. How many of our readers have piles of stocks and bonds or small hoards of savings? Do you ever think of making up for your "weak moments" by strong moments of sacrifice for the poor?

The poet Not the Vicar Our Lord never said: "I had ten buildings and you gave me a gymnasium," but "I was hungry and you gave me to eat." The rich get richer and the poor get poorer in the world. We forget that Our Lord said that the poor are our intercessors, our defense attorneys who plead for us at our death. If you are interested in helping the poor or the world now; in having the Holy Father make an even distribution of your alms this year; in not having your alms invested or used for luxurious buildings; in helping all areas of the world, all mission orders and societies, then in your "strong moment" write to the Holy Father's Society for the Propagation of the Faith with your sacrifice.

GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. G.M. for $10 "for the Holy Father to aid the poor of the world. Maybe it will help them to have a brighter 1965." ... to M. for $150 "This is to make up for a year of not sharing with the poor. I often 'mean' to send a sacrifice but, being weak and worldly, I do not."

Send us your old gold and jewelry—the bracelet, or ring you no longer wear, last year's gold eyeglass frames, the cuff links you never liked anyway. We will resell them and use the money to aid the Missions. Your semi-precious stones will be winning precious souls for Christ. Our address: The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.
