

Deanery Council Growing, Divides Into Four Units

The Monroe County Council of Catholic Women will hold a historic meeting at St. Ambrose school on Tuesday, Mar. 16 at 8 p.m. It will be the last meeting of the various city and county affiliates before they divide into four district councils.

Growth of the Council in recent years to almost 80 affiliates has necessitated the organizational change, said Mrs. J. Raymond Hensler, president. Mrs. Joseph Palo, chairman of the Extension committee has submitted plans for the dividing lines, which are the Genesee River as a north-south line,

Engagement

Corning—A summer wedding is planned by Miss Gwendolyn R. Mannino of South Corning and Harry N. Palmer of Horseheads. The engagement of the young couple is announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mannino of 4 Elm St., South Corning. Her future husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Palmer of Horseheads.

Corning—The engagement of Miss Carol Ann Tota of Elmira, and Jude Robert Nische, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Nische of 239 E. High St., Painted Post, has been announced.

The prospective bride is the daughter of Mrs. K.P. Tota of 602 Windsor Ave., Elmira and the late Mr. Tota.

Wrestling Art Stated at CYO

A special wrestling program will be conducted by the CYO for six weeks for high school and grammar school boys.

The high school program will run from 7:00 to 8:30 Tuesday evenings starting March 9.

The program is open to high school boys. The course is designed for both novices and advanced wrestlers.

Instructor will be Shan Hyman, former Cortland State wrestler and now coach of Fairport wrestling team.

The grammar school program will get underway Saturday afternoon, March 20 from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.

CYO In The News

Sacred Heart grammar school team defeated St. Thomas the Apostle on the CYO court 53-20, to win the Grammar School White Division Title. Sacred Heart and St. Thomas the Apostle both finished the regular season with perfect 12-0 records, thus forcing the playoff.

Next Sunday afternoon St. Jerome of East Rochester will play Blessed Sacrament at the CYO for the Green Division Championship. Both teams are undefeated.
