

Art Exhibit Scheduled At Mt. Carmel, Auburn

For the first time since the opening of the school, Mount Carmel High School in Auburn will have an Art Show on Palm Sunday. The show will feature the works of art done by the students. All varieties of art forms will be displayed, including paintings, sketches, wood-carvings, metals, ceramics and a host of other artistic creations.

Judges for the occasion have been selected from Syracuse University and Auburn Community College. Medals will be awarded to the best three entries.

In addition to the students' works, there will be other attractions. A section of the show will be dedicated to liturgical art, featuring the best contemporary pieces.

Another section will be included, displaying the works of parents of the students, as well as a few art pieces on loan from various collections in the area.

The show will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 11 and run until 5:30 p.m. or until all have had a chance to view the exhibits. There is no admission and all who appreciate art are cordially invited to attend the Palm Sunday showing.
