Solemn Rites For Priest, Escaped Soviet Prison

A priest who spent half his priesthood laboring under anti-religious regimes and in refugee camps, was lauded at his solemn funeral Mass on Thursday, April 1, 1965, at St. George's Church.

REV. ANTANAS RACAITIS

Father Antanas S. Racaitis, assistant pastor of that church, died on March 29 at the age of 55. The preacher at his funeral was his pastor, Father Frank Valukevicius. Bishop James E. Kearney offered the solemn Requiem Mass.

Only 3 years after Father Racaitis was ordained in his native Lithuania, that country was overrun by the Russians.

Referring to the difficulties of carrying on a ministry under an atheistic regime, Father Valukevicius pondered:

"We wonder what kind of priests we would have been if we had to live his life."

Things were not especially improved when the Germans took over Lithuania in 1941, the preacher continued. When again in 1944, the Russians had swept back to occupy the beleaguered little land, Father Racaitis was still struggling to shepherd his flock under a hostile administration.

The return of the Russians pressured many Lithuanians to flee their native land. Father Racaitis finally decided to leave too, but shortly after was captured by the Russians and imprisoned.

Some months later, he took part in a successful escape to the American zone of Germany.
