THE HOUSE OF CONTAINMENT

At last! A house for today's way of living
OPEN TODAY AT 1 P.M.

in beautiful Bright Oaks, Chili

Furnished and decorated by Darryl Gronsky of Sibley's Upstate New York's most distinguished home decorators

On the outside, it's a traditional two-story home of Colonial character. Inside you come face-to-face with today's dynamic concept of zoning design... the creation of different zones—within the home so that related family activities can be grouped into separate contained areas.

Look at the living zones in The House of Containment plan. Notice how well they apply to your living patterns. The Guest-Entertainment Zone (this is the showplace of your home).

The Informal Activity Zone, where your family will spend most of its time, and very comfortably, we might add. The Quiet Zone, with its four spacious bedrooms—private and secluded (this is the wonderful part about two-story living).

You owe it to your family to visit The House of Containment. Inspect it today, fully (and charmingly) furnished by Darryl Gronsky of Sibley's. Open from 1 to 9 p.m. every day, in Bright Oaks, Chili. Take Chili Avenue to Chestnut Ridge. You'll see our signs.
