

Two Events To Benefit Holy Childhood School

The School of the Holy Childhood will benefit from two fund raising projects scheduled for the near future.

Rosary Guild of Sacred-Heart Cathedral parish will donate the funds from their 13th annual card party for the school. The affair is scheduled for the Rectory Hall at 296 Flower City Park on Friday, April 30 at 8 p.m.

Chairman for the Cathedral event is Mrs. William A. Waters, with Mrs. Robert Shantz, co-chairman. Mrs. N. Lee Hastings is honorary chairman. On Sunday May 2, a buffet supper and dance sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. James Deisenroth at the Hospitality House, 2226 Fenfield Rd., will benefit the Holy Childhood operation. The buffet will run from 5 to 8 p.m., with dancing to the music of Al Schneider's orchestra featuring the Strollairs, from 7:30 p.m. to midnight.

Donation is $2.25 per person. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. William P. Young at GL 8-3025 before May 1.

The School of the Holy Childhood at 215 Andrews Street, provides special education for the slow-learning child, regardless of race, color or creed. It is directed by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

While there is a tuition charge, this provides less than one-third of the operating costs, the balance being provided by friends of the school, and organizations backing events such as the card party and buffet-dance mentioned above.

Cenacle Lists

General Retreat

A General Retreat will be held at the Cenacle Retreat House, 693 East Ave. the weekend of April 30 to May 2. This retreat, which will be conducted by a Capuchin Father, is open to women in all walks of life.

The retreat opens with registration at 6 p.m., followed by supper; there are eight conferences during the course of the week-end, and the program concludes with Benediction at 4:15 Sunday afternoon. Private or double rooms are available, and during the retreat there is ample opportunity to speak with the Retreat Master or with one of the Sisters.

Reservations may be made by mail, or by phoning the Cenacle, BR 1-8755.

Spring Festival

A Spring Festival parish dance will be held in the new center at St. Anthony's church, Elmira on Saturday evening for adults from 9 until 1.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by Jack Delliberto Orchestra featuring three drums and other surprises.

Frank Trocchia is chairman and Harold Trocchia is co-chairman. Samuel A. LeMark and Mrs. Fred D'Alaisio are in charge of refreshments.

Group Plans Benefit Sale

The Infant-of-Prague committee of Elmira Ladies of Charity are sponsoring a rummage sale to be held Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Penna Railroad YMCA corner of Miller and Penna Avenue.

Mrs. Joseph Rempe is general chairman and will be aided by all members of the committee.

Proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Pediatrics Unit at St. Joseph's Hospital and the Dominican Monastery.

Pastor Given Fourth Degree Chalice

A CHALICE, the gift of Corning Assembly of Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, was given recently to the Rev. Joseph F. Hogan, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Corning. Pictured for the ceremony are: Frederick White, financial secretary; Father Hogan, Dudley McLaughlin, Alfred Connaughton. The chalice is engraved with the names of deceased Knights of Corning Assembly.

Card Party Monday To Benefit Cenacle

The Annual Spring Card Party for the benefit of the Cenacle Retreat House will be held Monday evening, April 26 at 8 p.m. at McQuaid Jesuit High School, Miss Jean Flanagan is chairman, assisted by Miss Norma Dentinger, as co-chairman.

The Card Party is the only fund raising event of the year for the benefit of the Retreat House.

Each spring a Card Party is held by retreatants and friends of the Cenacle to help defray financial obligations assumed in the up-keep-of-the-House.

The Rochester Cenacle is a continuation of the work of the first Cenacle, where the Apostles around Our Lady not only prayed and received the Holy Spirit, but also went forth with charity and zeal to give that Spirit to the world.

Women desiring a deeper interior or spiritual life, women wishing to offer Christian leadership in their parish and community, find the spiritual nourishment they need at the Cenacle.

Those desiring to help the Cenacle, may obtain card party tickets at the Retreat House, 693 East Avenue, or from members of the ticket committee headed by Miss Rosaline Nester. Ticket returns may also be made at the Cenacle.
