High School Forensics

Eight Aquinas students representing each of four high school classes were awarded Oratorical Trophies at the conclusion of the Annual Aquinas Oratorical Season.

Involving some sixty students under the direction of Mr. Michael Wesley, C.S.B., the Spring 1965 event produced these winners:

In the Freshman Class, Larry White won first place with George DeRoller the Frosh Runner-Up. The Sophomore Class best speakers were Kevin Donovan and Ed Streb who placed first, second respectively. In the Underclassmen Finals, between the Freshman and Sophomores the Donovan-Streb Sophomore combination beat the Frosh representatives.

In the Aquinas Upperclassman events the Junior Class winners were David Hill and Terry Ackerman in that order. The Senior Class winners were
