FATHER JAMISON

small measure of its success: due to the energy and organizing skill of the grey-haired

Father Jamison came to Rochester in 1953, after 18 years in the missions of Puerto Rico. Some idea of his impact on the local retreat house can bee seen from the statictics of that year, compared to 1964.

In 1953, 809 men took part in 20 closed retreats at the Notre Dame Retreat house. In 1964, 3,400 retreatants in 46 retreats set a new record for the diocese,

(Last year a successful drive for $750,000 to build a new Ro-treat House on the sheres of Canamdaigua Lake was held.)

Father Michael Downing, superior of the local retreat center, paid a moving tribute to Father Jamison this week in the "Notre Dame Newsletter:"

"It is difficult to my goodbye to Father Jamison. He brought to the retreat work in Recheste a unique combination of gifts. He had a genius for organization, with releations drive and careful attention to detail that his personal contact with each retreatant he had the gift of sympathy so that every retreatant approached him with any confidence . . . It is difficult to say goodbye to such a . . But the years of this Guaranteed To Bloom This Year Faverite Varieties
