Rare, Hot & Cole

Seldom heard Cole Porter tunes are featured in a new Philips release called Rare, Hot & Cole Porter. After hearing Sheila Sanders' sophisticated, intimate styling on these tunes, you'll wonder why they have been "sleepers" for so long.

Miss Sanders recalls the contemporary scene of years gone by with such tunes as Come to the Supermarket in Old Peking and Most Gentlemen Don't Like Love from the 1938 stage show, Leave It To Me, and I've Got

You On My Mind, from the 32 production of The Gay Divorces. Her provocative, cafe-society voice, coupled with superb arrangements, combine for an LP that is an emotional wallop. Other tunes include Can-Can, The Latest Gal in Town, Hot House Rose and Make It Another Old Fashioned Please.

Mr. Oscar Brown Jr. Goes to Washington on the Fontana label with some new songs that combine humor, unique styling and a good voice into a first rate LP. Recorded live at the "Cellar Door," the record includes One Life, Beautiful Girl, Maxine, Summer in the City and eight others. Fresh and pleasing.

Impeccable taste and superb artistry in the name of Gloria Lyman returns on the Fontana label with her second compelling album in a row, Soul Serenade. Besides the title tune, the album offers That's My Desire, If I Loved You, Watermelon Man, Teach Me Tonight, Baby Won't You Please Come Home, Don't Go to Strangers, People Will Say We're in Love, I'll Be Around, It Could Happen to You, and Joey, Joey, Joey.

You may cause a little commotion when you ask for Dusty Springfield's latest album for Philips, Oooooooweeeee!, but it'll be worth it. Riding high on the success of a string of single hits and two best selling albums, she offers a wide range of vocal treatment to a dozen more songs here.

Titles include Losing You, Here She Comes, Once Upon a Time, He's Got Something, If Wishes Could Be Kisses and Now That You're My Baby.

The 4 Seasons Entertain You with an impressive new tune, Show Girl, on their latest Philips LP and add another 11 topnotch songs for good measure. Compelling entertainment for the whole family is offered with such tunes as My Prayer, Somewhere, Little Angel, A Sunday Kind of Love, One Clown Cried and Living Just For You.

Woody Herman is joined by the musicians who brought him fame with Woody's Goodies for Philips. Some of the same tunes that pleased music lovers back in the mid-40's are repeated here. Solid rhythm is the keynote of the album with such tunes as Wallin' in the Woodshed, Blue Monk, You Dirty Dog, The Good Earth, Bijou, Apple Honey and I Can't Get Started.

Songs with messages, charm and provocative treatment are offered by Nina Simone on a Philips Record, I Put a Spell on You. And she will. The album soars with inspiration and beauty with tunes like the title song, Gimme Some, Beautiful Land, You've Got to Learn, Blues on Purpose, Feeling Good and July Tree.

Guitars — Fantastic and flamenco add a pleasing Spanish air to a recent Philips album by Ricardo Montalvo and Paco de Lucia. Just sit back and enjoy this talented pair with radiant style through such tunes as La Caleta, Gaditanas, Jerez en Fiesta and Sor Tilegio.
