Aquinas Tips Olympia High

By WHIT JOHNSON

Aquinas Institute's track team, superior in the running events, defeated Greece Olympia, 1964 Monroe County champions, in a meet on the Greece field Monday, 57-56.

The Irish scored most of its points running, winning six of seven events. Greece won all six field events.

Randy Block led the Irish with a :21.2 clocking in the 200-yard dash. Dick Buerkle, fighting the elements and soggy track, suprised with a 10:17 mark to capture the 2-mile event. Other Aquinas runners taking first places were John Houle in the 440-yard dash and Kevin Donovan in the 800-yard dash.

Last Saturday Aquinas defeated St. Joseph's of Buffalo, 80½ to 37½, in a track meet at Eastridge High School field.

The half-mile relay team of Don Hall, Bob Donofrio, Randy Block and Craig Zurkey not only won that event but each member went on to win an individual event. Block and Zurkey tied for the 100-yard dash; Hall won the broad jump and Donofrio took the 120-yard low hurdles event.

In junior varsity action, the Aquinas jayvees defeated St. Joe's, 77-41.

Aquinas now stands 2 and 1 on the season, losing its initial effort of the season to Webster in a heartbreaker. The Webster loss was Aquinas' only defeat since the 1962 season.
