Mission Day May 6

Mission Day will begin at St. Agnes High School next Thursday morning, May 6, with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass which will be offered by Rev. John Drexel. Father Drexel is an Oblate of Mary Immaculate from Rochester who has been stationed in Brazil.

Father will speak to the student body of the needs of the missions of Brazil. The aim of this St. Agnes Mission Day is to help the missionary endeavors of the Rochester Sisters of St. Joseph in Selma and in Brazil.

After lunch, while last minute touches complete the preparations which began many weeks previously, most of the students will view the movie "Prisoner of Zenda." Games of fun and skill will fill the rest of the afternoon and evening. Mission Day will end at 10 p.m.

Four At Convention

K of C Plans New Building

The Knights of Columbus, largest Catholic men's organization in the world, will build a 20-story, $8 million headquarters at New Haven, Connecticut.

Begun in 1882, the Knights count more than 1,200,000 members and rank in the top five per cent of insurance companies.

The fraternal order has several units in the area of the Rochester Diocese.

The order is currently seeking to enlarge its membership throughout the U.S., particularly by bringing more executive personnel into its ranks.

The new headquarters building will replace an older structure also in New Haven. The new structure will be the tallest in New Haven.
