I.F.C.A. "Mary's Day"
Rochester Circle, International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, will hold its annual "Mary's Day" on Saturday, May 8, according to Miss Helen Durnin, Spiritual Director of the Circle. Mass will be offered at 12 o'clock noon in St. Joseph's Church, with Bishop James E. Kearney as celebrant and speaker.
It is on this day that Circle members pay special homage to their spiritual Mother as "Mary, Mother of the Church," just as on the following day maternal mothers are honored. A cordial invitation is extended to Catholic women and high school and college students to attend this Mass.
Guests at the luncheon will include Chaplains and Moderators of affiliated schools. Speaker will be Very Rev. Dom Damasus Winzen, O.S.B., Prior Mt. Saviour Monastery, Pine City, N. Y. His topic will be "Mary, Mother of the Church."
Miss Mary Lou Broderick, Regent of Rochester Circle, has appointed Miss Grace Murray as General Chairman. Members will contribute to a Mary's Mite collection to be given to one of the Circle's special charities.

Aquinas Leads in Grants

Aquinas Institute blazed its way to academic glory once again during the past week by capturing five National Merit Scholarships, reportedly the largest number awarded to any school in central New York State.
The winners are:
Robert T. Craig, Jr., 251 Autumn Dr., St. John the Evangelist parish, Greece to study political science at Canisius College.
John F. Houle, 392 Driving Park Ave., Holy Rosary parish, to study civil engineering at Villanova University.
Enrico E. Jones, 10 Vienna St., Holy Redeemer parish, to study international relations at Harvard.
Joseph M. Hodges, 58 Weaver St., Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish, to study engineering at Cornell University.
James A. Full, 111 Ridgeman Rd., Holy Name parish, Greece, to study chemical research at the Rochester Institute of Technology.
National Merit Scholars are chosen without regard to preferential criteria of any kind. In making their judgments, committee members evaluate test scores, high school grades, creative achievements outside the classroom, qualities of leadership, school and community citizenship, extracurricular activities, high school officials' endorsements, and similar data made available by school officials.
As is the case with most other four-year scholarship awards, and in accord with a stipend system based on individual need, a Merit Scholar is not permitted to accept other major monetary scholarships if the Merit award covers his needs.
A special tribute will be made to the Merit Scholars on graduation day by Rev. Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., principal of Aquinas.
