

New Coach At Mt. Carmel

Auburn—Ronald Carnicella is the new athletic director and varsity football coach at Mount Carmel High School. The signing was announced by Rev. Malachy Mahoney, O.G.M., principal.

Carnicella succeeds Arthur Foster as athletic director and David Didlo as football mentor. Foster resigned his post this week to accept a teaching position near Saratoga.

Didlo, coach for the past two seasons, announced his resignation last March.

Carnicella has been head coach at Lancaster, Pa., Catholic High School for the past four years. His teams during this time posted a 29-10 record. He has had several gridderies named to All-Pennsylvania eleven. The past two years his record at Lancaster was 9-1 and 8-2 respectively.

Born in Altoona, Pa., Carnicella graduated from Altoona Catholic and attended Penn State for one year. He transferred to Millersville State College in his sophomore year where he played tackle on the varsity football team for three years. He was elected president of the senior class.

Before going to Lancaster,

Carnicella taught at Pottsville, Pa. He and his wife Anne-Marie are the parents of two boys.

Coach Carnicella is the fourth football coach at Carmel since varsity competition was started in 1937. Don Bucc, Frank Reganelli and Didlo had previously held the post.

College students Mark Nothnagie and John Gaughan of St. Andrew's Seminary display the Red Cross Herman J. Walz Trophy their school won for a three year record of the highest percentage of blood donations. This year they averaged 68 per cent, tops of all colleges in the area.

Tablet Editor Given Honor
Philadelphia—(NC)—Patrick F. Scanlan, veteran editor of the Tablet, Brooklyn, N.Y., diocesan newspaper, has been named for the 1965 St. Augustine Award of Villanova University here.

Scanlan, who has been with the Tablet since 1908, was born in New York but his family moved here when he was a boy. He was graduated from St. Joseph's College here. He returned to New York in 1905 and joined the Tablet when it was founded in 1908.

The university's St. Augustine Award is named for the patron of printers and is presented annually for "distinguished achievement in the field of communications journalism." Scanlan is the tenth recipient of the award.
