Father Aylward Requiem, Headed Retreat House

Rev. Augustine Aylward, C.S.S.R. who died May 5, 1965 in the Redemptorist Rectory of the famed Basilica in Boston, the Mission Church, was widely known in the Diocese of Rochester. He was particularly esteemed by members of the Laymen's Retreat League.

Father Aylward had charge of the Men's Retreats in Geneva for six years at the Retreat House on Seneca Lake. When Bishop Kearney, "always a friend of the Retreatants" suggested the retreat house be established in Rochester, the Redemptorists under Father Aylward took over the direction of purchasing the former Baptist seminary at 246 Alexander St. for $80,000. The Redemptorists spent more than $70,000 more to repair it.
