—but in more colorful uniforms, are these 125 cadets from Nazareth Hall, at the annual Battalion Review held last Sunday, May 23 on the Aquinas Institute grounds. A crowd of 2,000 watched the cadets go through their paces, accompanied by the Aquinas Marching Band and Color Guard. NROTC officers from the U. of R. under Captain W. H. Game, USN, inspected the cadets.

Elmira Council Slates Memorial Field Mass

The Memorial Field Mass — once a tradition in Elmira — will be celebrated this Saturday, May 29 at 11 a.m. in St. Peter and Paul's Cemetery. This renewal is sponsored by Elmira Council 229, Knights of Columbus, and Elmira Fourth Degree Assembly.

Celebrant of the Low Mass will be Father Roy J. Kiggins, Council Chaplain and assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

All Catholics of the Elmira area are urged to attend and are asked to use the Gleason St. entrance to the cemetery.

Mass will be celebrated at the Priests' Plot under the large crucifix.

In the event of rain, the Mass will be celebrated in the Little Flower Chapel of the Dunn Memorial Building of St. Joseph's Hospital at 11.

This occasion marks the first Field Mass held at the cemetery in some 20 years.

Arrangements have been made so that the congregation can receive Holy Communion. St. Cecilia's School Choir, under the direction of Sister Mary Seraphim, will sing the Mass.

Elmira Fourth Degree Assembly Color Corps, under the direction of Color Corp Captain Willis I. Larrabee and Faithful Navigator Frederick E. Dylms, will act as an honor guard.

Council Warden Edward A. Hee has been named general chairman by Council Grand Knight Edward A. Claus.

He is assisted by Father Kiggins and Council 6-Point Chairman Matthias F. Fennell.

Mandatory educational requirements and state licensing have materially elevated professional standards in funeral service. This tendency towards equalization, however, has also served to emphasize more any differences in personalized service. Today, in all phases of American life, service performed in a sincere and natural manner is sought after and appreciated... and nowhere more so than in the field of funeral service.
