Wedded Priest, Convert, Dies

Malta—(NC)—Father Rudolf Goethe's first, married Protestant minister to be ordained a Catholic priest, has died here at the age of 84.

At the time of his death (May 24) he was head of the Catholic Information Office at Malta. A collateral descendant of the German poet, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe (1749-1832), Father Goethe, a former Lutheran minister, was ordained by the late Bishop Albert Stohr of Mainz on Dec. 22, 1951, at the age of 70. His wife, the former Countess Buelow von Dennewitz, is also a convert.

A special dispensation for the ordination was granted by Pope Pius XII with no restriction on his married state. Father Goethe married when he was 45, and became a Catholic five years later. He and his wife had no children. Since Father Goethe's ordination, several other married former Protestant ministers have been ordained to the Catholic priesthood.

Red Pawn Honored

Vienna—(RNS)—Communist Hungary has conferred another high honor on an excommunicated Roman Catholic prelate who for more than a decade has been a leader of the so-called "patriotic priests" movement.

Reports from Budapest said President Istvan Dobi had personally conferred on Dr. Miklos Beresztoczy, Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly and Secretary-General of the Catholic Peace Council, the Order of Merit of Labor in gold for outstanding work in the nation's "social and political life" and in "promoting good relations between the government and the Catholic Church."

The occasion was the 60th birthday of the one-time director of Catholic Action in Budapest, who had been made a Monsignor by Pope Pius XII in 1939, only to be placed under sentence of excommunication in the early 1950's for active support of a government that was then waging a bitter war against the Church.

Various described by Catholic observers here as an "enigma" or "an unfortunate figure," Dr. Beresztoczy, whose family originally came from Germany, saw himself emerge from a Communist prison cell to become one of the government's most prized—and decorated—pawns in its efforts to win support from the Catholic clergy for the "new order" in Hungary.

Art Courses Offered At Three Centers

Seventh-graders who have a talent and interest in art have an opportunity to develop this gift in the program to be offered this summer by the Sisters of St. Joseph at three different centers in Rochester.

Every week-day, from 8:30 until 11:40 a.m., during the month of July, the students in these art courses will be guided in the exploration of the various art media and their own individual skills and aptitudes.

Creativity and self-expression will be emphasized, but, at the same time, attention will be given to teaching the techniques best suited to each of the materials with the boys and girls are working, as well as the development of their powers of observation.

These art courses will be taught as part of the Summer Enrichment Program at the following centers: Nazareth Hall Cadet School, Our Lady of Lourdes School, and St. John the Evangelist School on Ridge Road. Registration is still open for this course and may be made at any of these centers.

World Council, Vatican Start Collaboration

Geneva—(RNS)—World Council of Churches and Roman Catholic delegates to a historic new joint "working group" agreed here at their first official meeting that there are many fields of common interest in need of further study.

The eight WCC and six Catholic representatives met at the WCC's Ecumenical Institute at Bossey, near here. This initial session was aimed at clarifying their mandate to explore possibilities for "practical collaboration" and to determine future work methods.

Though no full report of discussions was made, it was stated that the sessions proceeded in a spirit of "Christian understanding" were valuable for the exchange of information and that relations established are expected to facilitate future ecumenical progress.

It was reported that the talks included considerable stress on the growing number of ecumenical conversations underway in various parts of the world.

The two churchmen who have been credited with key roles in negotiations leading to formation of the joint group were named co-chairmen and alternated in chairing the meetings. These were Dr. W. A. Visser 't Hooft, a Dutch Reformed clergyman who is general secretary of the WCC and Dutch-born Bishop Jan Willebrands, secretary of the Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity.
