Chosen Class Officers St. Patrick's School graduating class of 1965 has elected class officers: James Coniglio, president; Cindy Estruch, vice president; Anthony Leavy, secretary; and Andrea Adornino, treasurer. The 53rd class will be graduated Wednesday, June 23 at ceremonies to be held at St. Patrick's Church.

Because our contacts with the clergymen of our community are frequent and varied, we must admit that we have sometimes been gullible of taking their selfless devotion for granted. May we then at this time express our appreciation for the many gracious services they render without complaint and often with little or no reward. McCarthy Funeral Home ELMIRA

Mixed Marriage Change Expected Haarlem - (RNS) - A noted Dutch priest, long active in the Christian-unity movement and a peritus (expert) of the Second Vatican Council, said here that it is expected that Pope Paul VI will issue a motu proprio modifying the Catholic Church's stand on mixed marriages.

Miss Anne Falvey, president, welcomed the assembly and then introduced Mrs. Arthur J. Schnoop, toastmistress. Mrs. Frederick J. Welch was general chairman.

Father L. Alting von Geusau said he believes the pontiff will complete modifications of the canon laws on marriage before the opening of the fourth session of Vatican II in September.

Special recognition was given to 4 members who have belonged to the Society for 50 years, Miss Loretta Driscoll, Mrs. James Roddy, Mrs. William Ganey and Mrs. Fred Lesch.

Despite opposition from some American bishops, he said, it is expected that a "milder tone" will be taken by the Church toward mixed marriages.

Mrs. Leonard Greene, chairman of the nominating committee then presented the names of the new officers for the coming year. President, Mrs. William J. Byrne; vice president, Mrs. Frank Bratek; secretary, Mrs. Charles Stubbs; treasurer, Mrs. E. Joseph Hasset, and financial secretary, Miss Frances Hait.

Father Alting von Geusau is director of the Netherlands Council Documentation Center. In 1962, the priest attended the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches as a journalist. Only recently he was given peritus status for the next Council session.

Rev. Michael Conboy, a former St. Mary's boy, was the guest speaker and his topic was "The Church - The Changes in This Age of Renewal." The "St. Mary's" presented the entertainment.

According to the Dutch priest, a motu proprio - a papal rescript not necessarily issued with the advice of cardinals or others - from Pope Paul would be welcomed in European countries.

Mrs. Henry S. Hanford, 1180 Clover St., and Mrs. Raymond J. White, 90 Indian Spring Lane, were Rochester's official representatives at the 15th Biennial Conference of the Associated Alumnae of the Sacred Heart held in Chicago and Lake Forest on May 24-27. Mrs. Hanford is president of the Alumnae Association of the Prince Street Convent of the Sacred Heart in Rochester. Mrs. White spoke on "Alumnae and the World" at the 5th Session of the Conference.

Among the changes possible in canon law, he said, were these: Withdrawal of the requirement that the non-Catholic partner in a mixed marriage guarantee that children of the marriage be raised and educated as Catholics. In its stead, he said, the Catholic partner would be asked only to do his or her best to provide the children with a Catholic education.

Corning K of C Elects Officers Cirling - Mrs. William Roberts has been elected president of Corning Ladies of Columbus at the group's final meeting in the Knights of Columbus home.

The Dutch expert's comments would tend to confirm two previous reports on possible changes of canon law involving mixed marriages. The first was reported in Paris by Pastor Marc Boegner, famed French Protestant leader. In February, following an unprecedented meeting in Geneva with Augustin Cardinal Bea, president of the Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity, the former president of the French Protestant Federation and one-time co-president of the World Council of Churches predicted such a motu proprio would be forthcoming.

Others elected and slated to be installed when business resumed in September are Mrs. Joseph Lapasnick, vice president; Mrs. W. W. Babcock, secretary; Mrs. Anthony Kreszski, treasurer, and Mrs. Albert Connaughton, guard.

In early April, Vatican sources added to the story. They held that a motu proprio was under consideration, one that would remove some of the "guarantees" asked of each partner in a mixed marriage. It was also said then that the Pope was considering recognizing as valid those marriages performed outside the Church by non-Catholic Christian ministers. In such a case, it was said, the Catholic's participation would be considered "illicit," but the marriage would be Sacraments Aid Mental Health Corning - The sacraments of the Catholic Church are psychologically beneficial to mental health, Mrs. Louise Maloney told 60 persons attending the Stella Maris Society communion breakfast in the Baron Steuben Hotel.

The speaker, executive director of the Family Service Society, noted that such sacraments "support a person from birth to death with definite concepts and a code of ethics."

Queen Visits Cathedral Cologne - (RNS) - Cologne's 700-year-old Roman Catholic cathedral - the largest church in Germany - was visited by Queen Elizabeth of England during her West German tour. Accompanied by her husband, Prince Philip, the monarch was welcomed in front of the cathedral by Josef Cardinal Frings, Archbishop of Cologne, and other Church dignitaries. The cardinal escorted the Queen to a special pew where German emperors were traditionally seated in the past. It had been lined with red silk for the visit of the British royal couple. "Every emperor and king visiting the cathedral has been asked to sit down here," Cardinal Frings said. "May I take the liberty of asking Your Majesty to sit down for a moment to manifest the idea of peace and friendship between England and Germany."
