To Science Seminar

Dominic Esposito and Dennis Murray, juniors at Notre Dame, have been chosen to attend the Holiday Science Lecture Series at Syracuse University, July 8-11. The series is sponsored by the American Association for the Advancement of Science, in cooperation with Syracuse University. Speaker will be Dr. Henry Eyring, professor of chemistry at the University of Utah, whose topic will be "The States and Transformation of Matter."

Sister Mary Jane Frances, of Notre Dame's science department, will also attend the lectures.

Studied Stars

Sister Mary Jane Frances recently attended a two-day Institute in Astronomy held at the American Museum-Hayden Planetarium in New York City.

Nursing Grants

Phyllis Fillmore and Mary Patricia Ervin, seniors at Notre Dame, have been awarded scholarships to St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing. Miss Fillmore received the Board of Directors scholarship, and Miss Ervin received the scholarship awarded yearly by the staff of St. Joseph's.

School Officers

New officers for the coming year for the various organizations are as follows:

G.S.M.C.: Paul Zoltowski, Mary Kay Burns, Camilla Lynch, John Zoltowski, Senior Class; Don Carmody, Dolores Leach, Carolann Quattrini, John Leonard, Junior Class; Paul Titus, Marla McCarthy, Bridget Sweet, James McGill, Sophomore Class; August Moretti, Denise Butler, Patricia Leonard, Timothy McGill, German Club; Dominic Esposito, Margaret Paclerek, Vicki Kessing, John Morrissey.

Yearbook editor for the coming year will be John Morrissey.

Mooney Concert

Ranging in mood from spring romance to Broadway show tunes, the third Spring Concert will be presented at Cardinal Mooney High School Sunday, June 13, at 3 p.m.

"Anthem for Spring," a chorus from "Cavalleria Rusticana," will open the choral program directed by Sister Mary Edwina, RSM. Also included will be a romantic medley, including love songs of composers from Grieg and Herbert through a modern Serenata by Sorensen.

Trio voices of Elaine Kubiak, Andrea Delibert and Ann Marie Vorrasi will be heard in "Springtime is for Dreaming" and "I Hear the Mill Wheel."

Debuting in their new uniforms, the band, directed by Brother Edward Boyer, CSC, will carry out the theme of "moods of spring" in numbers which include "Midnight Beguine" and "Overture for Winds." Groups will combine in the finale, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The new band uniforms, red blazers, gray trousers or skirts, white dummies and white Montgomery berets, were purchased through projects sponsored by the Women's Guild.

Mercy Senior Ball

Mercy High School seniors will dance to the music of Ken Unwin's band on Friday, June 11, when the Chamber of Commerce hosts their Senior Ball. The dance's theme is "Softly As I Leave You."

Anne Robertson is the general chairman. Honorary chairman is Polly Eble, class president.

Best Speller

Senior Patricia Villa became Our Lady of Mercy High School's spelling champion when she alone of sixteen finalists earned 100% on a 50-word dictated spelling test. Sister Mary Petrus, English department head, administered the tests.

To qualify for the finals, a student had to earn 100% on each of the eight schoolwide spelling tests administered during the year.

Wins Week at UN

Cecelia Viggo, a junior at Our Lady of Mercy High School, is one of three area students to win a Rochester Rotary United Nations Scholarship. Her $200 grant will cover her travel and living costs while she spends a week at the United Nations next fall working on her approved contest project.

Her project concerns the resettlement and rehabilitation of Chinese refugees in Hong Kong and Macao and relates to the works of the office of the United Nations High Commissioner of Refugees.

Also selected were Sally Damon, Columbia School, and Nancy Wallace, Irondequoit High School.

This year Cecelia has been one of Mercy's junior representatives to the Rochester Association of the United Nations.

Latin Experts

In the recent Latin Sight Translation Contest sponsored by Penfield High School, Bonnie Sutherland of Bishop Kearney High and Paula Connelly of St. Agnes High School tied for first place in the second year contest.

Also earning commendation for their work were Lorena Urbanic of Bishop Kearney High, Elaine Kubiak of Cardinal Mooney High, and Patrick Murphy and Stephen Kinsky of Aquinas Institute.

Elaine Tunaitis of Nazareth Academy placed first among third-year contestants.

Winning Menu

Sister Maryann and the Sophomore Foods Class at Bishop Kearney High School have been selected as runner-up for New York State in the Fleischmann Yeast "Young America's Menu-Planning Contest."

Working on the principle of a flight menu, the class made imaginary stops in various European countries, including Ireland, England, Germany, Italy and France, and planned the meals according to the cuisine of the country they visited. Their reward will be a major appliance for the Home Economics classroom.

Seniors Kept Busy

Commencement activities for the 1965 Graduation Class of St. Agnes High School began Monday, June 7, with a picnic at Genesee Valley Park for the entire class and for the faculty.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 9, at a special assembly, all members of the Class of '65 were received into the St. Agnes High School Alumnae Association. Present to receive them were Mrs. Kathy LaDolla Lynd, '58, president of the association this past year, and Mrs. Beverly Vassallo Clark, '61, vice president. They were assisted by Kathleen Kuchman and Susan Falbo of the class who have been elected board members for this class.

Next Monday evening, the Senior Class will honor their parents and the faculty at a special banquet to be served at Vince's Fifty Acres. Toastmistress Christine Faraone, president of the class, will welcome all in the name of her classmates. Vice president Kathy Ziebro will pay tribute to the faculty and Treasurer Anne Marie Blum will give the tribute to the parents.

At this time also, Secretary

Eileen Childs will read the Class History. All arrangements were completed by the class officers under the guidance of the Senior Class moderator, Sister Evelyn.

Mooney Raps Aquinas, 4-1

Cardinal Mooney High School baseball team defeated Aquinas Institute 4-1 last week, behind the 4 hit pitching of Jim Butler. The victory gave the Mooney nine a 14-7 record for the season.

The Cardinals started the scoring in the bottom of the first inning as Joe Tortoretti got on base on an error. He moved to second on another error and scored on Terry Murphy's line drive single to center. Aquinas came back to tie the game up in the top of the second as George Peason and Mike Graham singled. Tom Prescott, Irish centerfielder then singled sharply scoring Peason.

Cardinal bats came alive in the bottom of the second inning as Kevin Dugan got on base on an error and was sacrificed to second by Joe Tortoretti. Tom Hayes singled through the box to score Dugan. Murphy then singled again, moving Hayes to third. Jim Nealon, then tripled to deep left center to drive in Hayes and Murphy for the final tally.

Murphy led the Cardinals attack with a 3 for 3 performance while Prescott led the Irish with 2 singles in 3 times at bat.

Butler struck out 8 Aquinas hitters to gain his 7th win against 3 losses.

How can this great 6-year-old Canadian cost no more than leading domestic whiskies?

Easy! It's imported in bulk to save you about $1.00 a bottle in tax and shipping. It's bottled here, but the taste is all Canadian.
