

Baseball Season Opens for Youth Group

FATHER SEBASTIAN CONTEGIACOMO is shown giving his blessing to the boys of the Northwest Youth Association at Most Precious Blood Church field following a parade in which 225 boys marched in their new uniforms, led by a snappy drum and bugle corps. The first ball was thrown by James Huether to open officially the new baseball season. Speeches were made by Ray Margrette, Frank Hemmerich and Joe Esposito. Pat Donofrio, president of the association was master of ceremonies and introduced guests, sponsors, and league officials.

Scout Awards Bestowed in Hornell Rites

Hornell — The Ad Altare Dei Award, highest honor to be achieved by a Catholic Boy Scout, was presented to 15 Scouts from the Steuben Area Council at ceremonies Sunday afternoon in St. Ann's Church.

The awards were given by Father Joseph P. Haffey, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church. The Rev. Gerald T. Connor of St. Ann's parish welcomed the guests.

A Corning Cub Scout was presented with the Parvuli Dei Award, highest honor accorded in that phase of Scouting. He is Michael Gustine, a member of Pack 63, Corning.

The awards program was in charge of Anthony Montemarano and William O'Mara, both of Hornell, members of the Catholic lay committee on Scouting.

Nun's Vacation In Negro School

Worcester — (RNS) — A nun with a doctoral degree in English and years of teaching experience has volunteered to spend her four-month sabbatical this summer up-grading the English department at a Negro Methodist college in Birmingham, Ala.

Arrangements for the visiting teachers were made by Father Donald P. Gonynor of St. Anne's parish in Shrewsbury and a leader in civil rights activities in Worcester. He said the president of Miles College, Dr. L. H. Pitts, was "thrilled about the possibilities" of two highly qualified teachers joining his staff even for a short period.

Sister John said she hoped to bring back from her experience something of the "spirit of poverty in the civil rights struggle that would be of great value in our Catholic colleges. One of our great stumbling blocks is our luxury, our wealth, our secure positions.

They may also assist with a summer institute for English teachers in junior and senior high schools of the Birmingham area.

No Freedom

Munch—(NC)—The Byzantine rite is still mercilessly oppressed by communists in Rumania, according to Bishop Basilio Cristea, visiting bishop for exiled Rumanians of that rite.

Speaking at a Rumanian national commemoration here, Bishop Cristea recalled that five Rumanian Catholic bishops arrested in 1948 have since died in prison.

Spanish Invalids Visit Lourdes

Madrid — (NC) — More than 300 sick Spaniards, accompanied by Archbishop Casimiro Morcillo of Madrid, left here for the seventh annual visit to the Shrine of Our Lady in Lourdes in France. Funds for the trip came mostly from public contributions sponsored by Radio Madrid.

They will be the only whites on the Miles College campus, and are believed to be the first white faculty the college has had.

The Forum Houses '65

A good story is a good story, whether the author is Washington Irving or Ian Fleming. And a good floor plan is a good floor plan, whether the house is traditional or modern. At Caldwell & Cook's Housing Forum last April, participants told us what they wanted in a house (see floor plans). And that's what Caldwell & Cook built, in Knickerbocker Hill, Pittsford.

Why two houses, then? Because when it comes to style, Rochester, you split down the middle! Some of you liked traditional. Others preferred contemporary. (All the better for the community; it will never be "one-face.") So Caldwell & Cook created two versions of the same basic floor plan.

One is a Northwest-modern house, designed by Seattle architect John Anderson, and decorated by Robert Caines (Sibley's). The other is New England Colonial with architectural detail by Ralph Fournier of St. Louis, and interior decor by Dorothy Kitzing (Sibley's). Both are exciting houses. One will fit your personality. Come see the Forum Houses '65 in Knickerbocker Hill now.

Take East Avenue to E. Jefferson Road in Pittsford. Turn left and Knickerbocker Road is on your right. Then follow Forum House signs.

Fully furnished. Open daily from 1 to 9 p.m.
