25 Years Ago
(Drom files of Catholic Courier, June 20, 1940)
Distinguished prelates, outstanding Catholic laymen in government and in the Knights of St. John, nationally prominent laywomen were to attend the Supreme convention of the Knights and Ladies in Rochester. A total of 9,000 delegates was awaited.

Bishop Kearney presiding at Fordham College commencement exercises in New York received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from Very Rev. Robert Gannon, S.J., Fordham president.

A class of 147 Elmira Ladies of Charity was inducted by Bishop Kearney in the first affiliation ceremony of that organization. Exercises were conducted in Dunn Memorial Chapel, Elmira.

MISS MARY E. FITZGERALD, Executive Director of the Elmira Area Ladies of Charity and Executive Director of the Elmira Catholic Family Service of the Rochester Diocese is shown with Monsignor Raymond J. Gallagher, National Spiritual Director of the Ladies of Charity and Executive Secretary of Catholic Charities. Both attended the recent regional convention in Buffalo.

Elmira Director Attends ALCUS Regional Meet
Miss Mary E. Fitzgerald, Executive Director of the Elmira Area Ladies of Charity, represented the local organization recently, Thursday, June 3, in Buffalo. The occasion was the Regional Conference of ALCUS—the Association of the Ladies of Charity of the United States. The Northeast Area represented at the Conference embraces the New England States, New Jersey and New York State.

The five areas of the United States have a Conference every two years or biennially. The Buffalo Conference consisted of a series of workshops. Subjects discussed included the obligations of the individual Lady of Charity, the organization of new Associations, and projects of some of the affiliated agencies. The Elmira Ladies of Charity supports Catholic Family Service, a Community Chest Agency.
