Auburn Carmelite At General Chapter

Auburn—Rev. Timothy Donohue, O.Carm., a member of Mount Carmel High School faculty, left last Wednesday for Rome, Italy, to represent the New York Carmelite Province at the order's General Chapter which begins Sunday at St. Albert's in Rome.

The General Chapter is held only every six years to elect a Superior General who will direct the Carmelite Order, one of the oldest in Catholic Church.

The opening session will be convoked by the present Superior General, Most Rev. Kilian Healy, O.Carm. More than 100 delegates will cast their ballots.

Before leaving by plane, Father Timothy said, "The General Order will also concern itself with the revision of the Carmelite Constitution and the adaptation of the Carmelite Rite to the new liturgical changes brought about by the Ecumenical Council." The session will extend through July 16.

Father Timothy was superior and principle at St. Albert's Seminary in Middletown before
