Against Council's Laws

Chicago — (NC) — Resistance to Vatican Council decrees will grow, a priest predicted here, but "slowly, surely and steadily" its constitutions and decrees "will filter down into the Catholic body."

"There will be, as there has already been a ripple caused by the Traditionalist Movement, a backlash, an encroaching, a negligence in some quarters," Father Vincent A. Yermans, director of the Bureau of Information, National Catholic Welfare Conference, told the Religion Newswriters Association here.

"But over and above and beyond that," he added, "there will be the fulfillment of hopes and desires pent up in Catholic hearts and minds for so long a time that the Catholic Church will be flooded with joy as her leaders and members enter into a new era of renewal and commitment."

Request for Editor: Fargo, N.D.—(NC)—Request Mass was offered here for Father William J. Durkin, 43, editor of Catholic Action News, monthly newspaper of the Fargo diocese.
