Franciscan Study Week Scheduled In Geneva

Geneva—First Annual Franciscan Study Week will be held in Geneva, July 22-25 at the Comstock House on the Hobart-Smith Campus. This is being sponsored by the Third Order of St. Francis, Immaculate Heart Fraternity, Geneva.

PURPOSE OF this study week is to learn more about the Franciscan Way of Life. It is not a day of recollection or a weekend retreat, not a provincial convention, it is a means by which "Franciscanism" will be explained in its origins, spirituality, apostolate, ideals and impact.

Area Third Order Fraternities from New York, New Jersey, Delaware and immediate areas are being invited to join in this study week. Lodging and meal accommodations are being arranged in the Comstock House. All conferences will be held on the campus. Among the lecturers will be Father Sebastian-Falcone, OFM, Third Order Director.

OVERALL THEME will be Our Heritage a Mandate from the Past. Among lectures to be given will be: Serving the Lord with Joy, Franciscan Peace, Francis of Assisi: The Man; Franciscan Prayer Life: Its Theology; Franciscan Imitation of Christ—What is it?

Several of the members of the Third Order will be on various panels. Also on the program for the three days will be demonstrations and workshops, slides, and films. A special presentation will be made by the Third Order Cordeliers (an organization for youngsters 14) of Francis and the Wolf, under the direction of Mrs. George Murphy advisor of the group.

Novena Listed At St. Patrick's

Annual Novena in honor of St. Ann will open in St. Patrick's church, Elmira on Sunday evening at 7:30 and will conclude with evening service on the feast day, Monday, July 18.

Daily Masses will be celebrated at 6:45 a.m., 7:30 a.m. and 8 a.m.

Devotions will include traditional Novena prayers, brief sermons preached by Rev. Donald Ammering, O.S.A.

Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and veneration of the relic of St. Ann will conclude the service.

Costume Prizes At Villa Maria

Camp Villa Maria on Harris Hill, Elmira, opened Friday, July 9. The camp is for girls 6-13 and is sponsored by Catholic Family Service, a Community Chest Agency.

Saturday evening was "Hobo Night" with the girls dressing in costumes for prizes. Winners were Joan of Arc (ages 6-8), Mary Beth Groves; Jacinta (ages 8-10) Patricia McCabe; Christophers (ages 10-12) Rita Zoltowski; Tekakwithas (ages 11-13) Susan Gould.

Sunday evening is "Baby Night" with the girls dressing up as infants. There will be prizes for each age group also. The encampment will close Wednesday, July 21. 88 girls are registered at the Camp.

Fisher Given 800 Volumes

The library of St. John Fisher College has received a gift of 800 volumes of New York State court reports from Attorney John F. Burke, partner in the law firm of Mercer & Burke, 31 Exchange St.

Included in the collection are "New York Reports" from Vol. 1, 1889, to date; "New York Appellate Division Reports" from 1899 to date; and "Miscellaneous Reports" from 1905 to date.

According to Rev. Fred A. Black, C.S.B., librarian at St. John Fisher, these reports will be maintained and kept current by the library staff. The collection is shelved and available for use in the library on request. Commenting on the gift, Father Black said, "Together these volumes constitute a tremendous backlog of legal precedence handed down in New York State."
