

GOD LOVE YOU

Most Reverend
Fulton J. Sheen

The anti-Christ has come! His black wings are pressing upon us. His advent hastens because he has already convinced us that he does not exist. In the days of Christ, we had to send missionaries to the naked in far-off lands. In the days of anti-Christ, we have to send missionaries to clothe the naked in America. Satan tears Christ from the cross and then flings that cross-less Christ to a spineless Christian West and throws the Christless cross of discipline to the Reds. He then erects the anti-cross, the twisted cross, on a "rock" that is not Peter and a "trill" that is not bread. He denies immortality, but stuffs Lenin with immortal paraffin and wax. He draws paintings of paint, that man may never see himself as an image of God. He roots out the soul compassion for the raped and the martyred and bids his sob sisters show compassion for the rapist and the mob.

Michael! Draw thy sword once more. Mary! Lift thy heel to crush the serpent! You faithful! Save souls where souls are saveable. Repent! De-mammonize yourself! Evil is a parasite which feeds on goodness—once on morsels, now on chunks. God gave us two weapons: knees and hands. Knees-to spend an hour a day in reparation for sins. Hands-to reach aims to Christ starving on a thousand streets. With this column, we begin a national plea for one hour a day of continuous prayer before the Blessed Sacrament (the laity may include Mass). How many of you will answer? How many will open their hands too?

GOD LOVE YOU to a teenager for $50 "to express my thanks for making me more aware of suffering mankind and the needs of the Church. You helped me to see Our Blessed Savior's cross in the crumbling adobe homes that house an impoverished Latin American family; to see our Lord's bloody sweat over those who slaughtered the Congo missionaries; to see Christ's tears for sinners over Catholics who harden their hearts and refuse to gaze upon the crucifix. But most of all you helped me look at my soul as it is and inspired me to say, 'Lord, help me to be an instrument of your peace, I, the sinner.' . . . to a convert for $50 "I want to offer some of what I've come to know to others. I have accepted a tremendous gift, I hope to return at least a small one. What I am is God's gift to me; what I become is my gift to Him."

Do you know what the 30th parallel is? It is an imaginary line that girdles the globe. Below it are Central and South America, Oceania, India, half of China, most of Africa. Above it are the well-endowed, the well-fed; those below live and die in wretchedness. Those above cannot envision the horror and anguish of those below. Hunger is not merely an economic problem; it is a moral and spiritual one—a greater danger to our future than atomic warfare. It is around this searing theme that Bishop Sheen has fashioned his new movie, "The 30th Parallel." It runs 28 minutes and is available through your local Diocesan Director. For more information, write your Diocesan Director or to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001.

Cut out this column, plus your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Bureau of Propagation of the Faith, 100 West 100th Street, New York, N.Y. 10025.

INDIA: NEW SISTERS IN TOWN

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

Wonderful things will happen in Karuvatta, southern India, if the Poor Clare Sisters have their way. "We're here to give poor children a chance," says Sister Superior. "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." . . . The Poor Clares began last year to build a Catholic school. With their own calloused hands they helped dig a foundation, lug stones, mix cement. The building now stands unfinished because the money for supplies is gone. . . . "We can complete the building before school opens this fall for only $980," Sister says. "Do you think someone will give us a hand?" . . . Meanwhile, the Sisters sleep at night on the hard mud floor in a noxious mud hut. A convent for them will cost $1,750. The chapel they need will cost $375 more. . . . Help the Sisters make things happen in Karuvatta! Name the school, convent, or chapel for your favorite saint, in your loved ones' memory, if you give the full amount. Give at least as much as you can ($100, $75, $50, $25, $10, $5, $2, $1). Wonderful things will happen if you help! Please send something now.

Author Speaks Despite Protests

COLUMBUS — (NC) — Author John Howard Griffin spoke at a packed house of about 1,300 persons at the college of St. Mary of the Springs here, despite an intense campaign to cancel his lecture.

Griffin, author of "Black Like Me," a book written after he toured the South while posing as a Negro, was the target of a telephone and mail campaign alleging that he was guilty of writing obscene books. But his two-hour speech went off without a hitch.

The Catholic Times, newspaper of the Columbus diocese, said pressure was felt by the local Catholic Interracial Council, which sponsored Griffin's appearance, the Columbus chancery office, the college and the newspaper itself.

Priests of the diocese and leading laymen were mailed "dirty" excerpts from books by Griffin; many persons reported numerous telephone calls opposing his appearance and a May 23 meeting of the interracial council was disrupted by about 50 persons who protested the author's appearance and heckled his defenders.
