URGENT: FOR GOD IN THE BUSH

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

From Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, Archbishop Arate Mariani pleads for help at once to keep the faith intact in Wolkitte, a crucial mission-center 100 miles to the south. Wolkitte is the point of contact for five native priests who care for 5,000 scattered Catholics in the "bush." The Muslim influence is becoming so strong, these priests report, there will be no Catholics left in Wolkitte unless we put a chapel and school there within the next few months. Will you do something to help these priests right now? Name the chapel (cost, only $2,500) or the school (cost, only $3,000) for your favorite saint, in your loved ones' memory. If you build it all by yourself, a three-room house for a full-time priest can be built for only $750. Send at least as much as $3. $1 can keep the faith alive. The Archbishop can save Wolkitte if you help.

United Nations Secretary U Thant looks forward to the day when, as part of their education, young people will spend one or two years working for the poor at home or overseas. Even now, some teen-agers send us a share of their "spending-money" once a month. We use it wherever they suggest.

Dear John, Because it's your birthday your Grandma and Grandpa sent me $10 to feed hungry refugee boys and girls. Happy Birthday! I'm sending you, as a keepsake, an Olive Wood Rosary from the Holy Land. —Msgr. Ryan

GOD LOVE YOU Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen

A recent survey among Protestant Churches revealed that an average of 13 cents out of every budget dollar was given to religious works outside the parish. Some Protestant churches gave 50 cents out of every dollar. An Anglican bishop told me that he stopped all building budget to the Missions. One very large Protestant denomination gives a third of its national income to their missions. Another sect gives $33 per man, woman and child, to their foreign apostolate. One can only admire Protestant missionary spirit and their sense of stewardship. For Catholics the only statistic available is the amount given to mission work. Last year the per capita amount given to the Holy Father for all the Missions throughout the world was 31 cents. That is not all that Catholics gave to the Missions, but it is all that was given to the Holy Father's Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

But Catholics are becoming more mission-minded. The last session of Vatican II affirmed that each bishop was responsible for the world as well as for his own diocese. One bishop in the United States sends two per cent of his annual budget to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Priests are sacrificing their vacations, automobiles and savings to increase the Holy Father's missionary treasury. The Italy perhaps are doing more than anyone, and for a reason which did not exist in the past. They are becoming critical of excessive expenditures for local churches, schools and social centers which remind them that they are neglecting the rest of the world. The laity used to be proud of an ornate, two-towered church or school with a gymnasium costing half a million dollars. Now they are ashamed of it. How many letters come to our desk expressing alarm at the concentration of wealth on the local, diocesan level. The Holy Spirit is awakening the Church from two sides. The bishops at the council now remember they are not only administrators of diocesan funds but shepherds of the slums. The laity are acting as a brake on parish expenditures and at the same time spurring pastors to share with the poor of the world.

Here is something to note: those who are most critical of the Church are those who never give anything to maintaining the Church. Others believe in example. They sacrifice and become a leaven in their parish and diocese. God Love You to those who are the leaven. God inspire you who are not!

GOD LOVE YOU TO C.W. for $50 "... to be used wherever the Holy Father knows it will do the most good" ... to E.W. for $500 "This is half of the generous gift given me by a relative. It is my gesture of appreciation for God's generosity and goodness. After reading MISSION I couldn't do otherwise and be happy" ... to Mrs. R.S. for $5 "Though some people would call us the poor we feel we would like to share with those who are even less fortunate."

The GOD LOVE YOU medal, a lovely cameo of the Madonna of the World, is one you would be proud to give or delighted to receive. Designed by the world-renowned jeweler Harry Winston and blessed by Bishop Sheen, it is available in a classic Florentine gold finish or sterling silver. Send your request and corresponding offering to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001. $2 small sterling silver; $3 small 10k gold filled; $5 large sterling silver; $10 large 10k gold filled.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 59 Chestnut St., Rochester, N.Y. 14604.
