YOUR HANDS FOR INDIA?

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

Father Cyril in Perikallor needs your hands, your prayers, your heart. The church you build (or help to build) will bring God's love to the poorest, penniless people... Perikallor is a frontier town, scarcely 12 years old, in the Wynad forest in southern India. Children and grownups (600 all told) stand outdoors for Sunday Mass because they have no church. Some of them faint in the summer heat, miss Mass entirely during the monsoon rains.

"It's the tiny tots especially I worry about," says Father Cyril. "Our Lord would build a church with His own two hands if He were here. Wasn't He a Carpenter?"... A church built to last will cost only $3,100 (the cost of the materials) because the men in the parish will do all the work free-of-charge at once. Give them your hands? Name the church for your favorite saint, in memory of those you love. If you give the full amount. Give something of yourself at least ($200, $100, $50, $25, $20, $15, $10, $5, $3, $1) right now by means of the coupon below. Could Christ the Carpenter not notice what your hands are doing?

Churches, schools, seminaries, will come into being in Asia and Africa this year thanks to scrap metal, newspapers, and castoff clothing (worth $750,000) students in Germany collected door-to-door. Here are some suggestions:

At Our House® "Slow Down" -- Again

By MARY TINLEY DALY

For some reason—perhaps about the poem, scotch-taping it carry-over from the relaxation of the summer—many readers are writing in for a reprint of Cardinal Cushing's prayer, "Slow Me Down, Lord!"

From South Hadley, Mass.: "I should like to obtain a copy of the poem and perhaps use it in our Rosary Altar Society Bulletin."
From "Mother of Six" in Canada: "Some months ago, you printed a poem by Cardinal Cushing that really helps me. It was about taking time to chat with a friend, look at a flower, pat a dog, read a book. I clipped it out and stuck it in my mirror. Every time I found myself rushing pell mell and getting all tense and nervous I'd read it over. Then, this summer my girls decided to 'surprise mother' by making a clean sweep of my bedroom—and there went the poem! I hadn't the heart to scold the children so I wonder if you'd send me a copy?"
From Chicago, from Richmond, from Bethesda, Md., and other places have come like requests.

A man reader tells of cutting the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind.

Steady my hurried pace with the vision of the eternal reach of time.

Give me, amidst the confusion of my day, the calmness of the everlasting hills.

Break the tension of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams.

Help me to know the magical restoring power of sleep.

Teach me the art of taking one-minute vacations...

Slowing down to look at a flower, to chat with a friend, to pat a dog, to read a few lines from a good book.

Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise. That I may know the race is not always to the swift; that there is more to life than increasing its speed.

Let me look up into the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly and well.

Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots into the soil for life's enduring values that I may grow toward the stars of my greater destiny.

Slow me down, Lord, that I may live abundantly!

Slow me down, Lord: Slow me down!
