MUSICAL INSTRUMENT RENTAL PLAN FOR STUDENTS

You don't have to own a musical instrument to play in your school band or orchestra. You can rent one for the entire school year, September 1st through June 25th, for a small fee in Harlu's new lease plan. It's the inexpensive way to try out an instrument. Then, if you decide to buy, you will receive a brand new instrument and the full fee, for the school year will be deducted from the cost of the new instrument.

THIS IS WHY YOU SHOULD FIND OUT ABOUT THE HARLU PLAN:

- Our parent company is LUYERNE INC. a full-time music dealer with an excellent reputation, a regular place of business and regular business hours... serving over 200 schools in the western part of New York State.
- You can lease any regular band or orchestra instrument, not just certain ones. It will be a name brand instrument, guaranteed to be in perfect playing condition.
- If service is needed, it will be promptly handled by Luyerne, Inc., which has one of the finest, best-equipped service departments anywhere.
- You can purchase a brand new instrument from Luyerne Inc. within 30 days after the end of the school year and deduct the fee you paid-up to one year's lease fee from the price of the new instrument. Leased instruments are never sold.

GOD LOVE YOU

Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen

On the same day, a mother lost two of her children, one aged 9, the other aged 11. One was a daughter, the other a son. Some parents are so cast down with grief that they think only of their loss. The mother and father of these two children wrote to us saying: "This represents the savings of our daughter, Patricia, and our son, Michael, who left us July 18th to be with our Father in heaven. I know they would want you to help some poor child have a better life." There was enclosed their young lives' savings of $4.73. Sacred Scripture says: "Their work shall follow them."

This mother has somewhat the same attitude as Our Blessed Mother at the foot of the Cross. She lost the Son of God and acquired the son of Zebedee. It was a poor exchange but it is the way of love. This good mother loses her own and immediately reaches to the aid of other poor children. In the message at Fatima, and if there is any truth to the later message of a few years ago in Spain, the Blessed Mother bids us to adopt the poor and hungry of the world in expiation for our sins. What this good mother did in sorrow for her children, other mothers in joy and happiness can do for the millions of afflicted in mission lands. It will only be by reparation that great disasters and catastrophes can be averted from the world. May Michael and Patricia who are in heaven intercede to the Holy Spirit so that all who read this column will do something for the poor.

If you believe that life does not stop with death and that giving does not stop with death—then re-examine your Will, look over your bequest! If you stand in need of God's mercy and feel that others would have done more with your faith, then make a notation in your Will: Because I have need of the forgiveness of the Son of God hidden in the poor, I hereby bequeath to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, the sum of ..... for the General Fund. "What you have done for the least of My brethren you have done for Me."

GOD LOVE YOU to C.M.C. who has another outlook on Wills. "Enclosed is another $50 gift. It would be a shame to wait until I die to help my brothers. It seems better to pay as I go through life in order to feel the pinch personally and get a deeper realization of how badly the poor suffer and need my help now rather than 50 years from now. They are hungry and sick now and starving as well from the lack of knowledge of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, and His teachings."

Get out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 56 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.
