Chaplain's Bible Talk Features CDA Meeting

Auburn—The habit of daily Bible reading was recommended by Father C. Irving Sullivan, chaplain of Court Auburn, Catholic Daughters of America in one of his series of talks on the Bible given before the CDA. "The Bible is a book of historical and prophetic facts and moral teachings," Father Sullivan said.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Eugene Brooks, co-chairman of the Library and Literature Committee, Cayuga Deanery Council of Catholic Women, gave "Why We Read" as the topic of an interesting book review. Explaining that we read for information, for entertainment and for inspiration, the speaker reviewed several books under each of these points, closing with "Ambassador in Chains" by Maryknoll Bishop Raymond Lane.

Youth on the March

Montreal (N.C.) - The Eucharistic Crusade, organization of young people from the third to ninth grades, has changed its name to Youth on the March. While preserving its basic purpose of devotion to the Mass, the organization will expand its efforts to prepare the children for Catholic Action work.

Fr. Hohman For 'Sacred Heart Week'

Sacred Heart Week was designated as the newest way to promote Devotion to the Sacred Heart by the Diocesan Directors of the Apostleship of Prayer at their annual meeting, Sept. 22, in Syracuse.

Attending the meeting were: Rev. George Arsenau, Syracuse Diocese; Rt. Rev. James G. Hart, Albany Diocese; Rev. Louis Hohman, Rochester Diocese; and Rev. Eugene H. Selbert, Buffalo Diocese. Rev. Joseph S. McBride, S.J., Buffalo Regional Director of the Apostleship of Prayer, was chairman of the meeting.

Reports were given by Rev. Thomas J. O'Day, S.J., National Director of the Apostleship of Prayer, and Rev. Thomas Diehl, S.J., National Director of the Eucharistic Crusade, respectively.

CHOOSING the Sacred Heart Week was in accordance with the latest letter from Pope Paul VI on the Sacred Heart Devotion wherein he makes it clear that the devotion "might daily grow in strength and be valued by all as noble and sure form of true religion."

During the course of a Sacred Heart Week, which may begin with the Sunday Mass and end the next Friday evening, there is stressed the place Christ should have in the liturgical revival and in the Christian renewal of life and of the family.

An up-to-date exposition of the devotion to the Sacred Heart in relation to the Mass, Sacraments, Consecration, Reparation, Apostleship of Prayer, daily life, the family, etc., is to be given.

The meeting closed with a dinner attended by Bishop Walter A. Foery, of Syracuse, honoring Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Hogan who recently retired as the Albany Diocesan Director.

Recuperating - Boston (N.C.) - Father Patrick O'Connor, S.S.C., on leave as Far East correspondent of the N.C.W.C. News Service, is recuperating in a Boston hospital from phlebitis, with inflammation of a vein - following major surgery last month.

GOD LOVE YOU
Most Reverend
Fulton J. Sheen

Much attention is given to certain of the Apostles - Peter, Paul, John - but little is given to Andrew. Andrew the apostle never preached a sermon that has been recorded, yet he brought many people to Jesus. He brought a boy with loaves and fishes to Jesus (John 6:8). He brought the Greeks to Jesus (John 12:22). Without Andrew there would have been no Rock of the Church, without Andrew no feeding of the hungry, without Andrew no lesson of the seed falling into the ground to yield rich fruit.

The Missions are helped by little people like Andrew. One little girl, aged five, sent her most precious possession—three marbles—for the Missions. We telephoned to thank her. After all, how many others give their most precious possessions for the Missions? There are some women in the world who have diamonds that are no more precious to them than Suzy's marbles were to her. We have few rich friends for the rich usually give to those who already have millions. But we have millions of poor friends. Andrews and Andreas, who bring souls to Jesus.

There are groups of children who give carnivals, puppet shows and fairs to raise money for the Missions; individuals who write "I can do without candy and magazines" and enclose $4; parents who, inspired by their children's sacrifices, add to them. One couple cut out our column and attaching the simple note "We bought a used car instead of a new one" enclosed a check for $1,500. With no fanfare, and no lack for anyone to notice, they have provided the Holy Father with a sum that could educate a native priest, or treat 300 lepers with sulfone for one year, or feed 1,500 people in the slums of Latin America. A Canadian woman anonymously sacrificed the $100 she had planned to spend on "an unnecessary new winter coat." No one will notice that she is wearing the same coat for another year, but the poor of the world will certainly notice $100 worth of food and medicine. Are you one of the Missions' Andrew's? God Love You!

Have you ever wondered "Just where does my money go? Just how much good does it do and for whom? How desperate are those people anyway? If you have, Bishop Sheen's new movie "The 30th Parallel" will answer all your questions. Those of us who live above the 30th parallel cannot envision the horror and anguish of those who live below. Hunger is not merely an economic problem; it is a moral and spiritual one—a greater danger to our future than atomic warfare. It is around this searing theme that His Excellency has fashioned "The 30th Parallel." It runs for 26 minutes and is available through your local Diocesan Director. For more information write your Diocesan Director or The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 10 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.

SOMETHING WONDERFUL

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

A convert 31 years ago, Father Luke Maniarkot asks help for something wonderful before he dies. He wants to leave behind him, in his parish in southern India, a church and rectory to last. . . . When he joined the Church in 1934, Father Luke brought with him 14 Jacobite families. Now in Enadi-mangalam he offers Mass for hundreds (many of them converts he instructed). "The harvest is ripe," this aging priest says gently. "If only someone will help us! . . . How can you help? A decent church can be built for as little as $3,500, since Father Luke's parishioners will build it free-of-charge. A rectory (with meeting-rooms) will cost only $2,100. . . . Do something wonderful while you can! Name the church ($3,500) or the rectory ($2,100) for your favorite saint, in memory of your loved ones, if you build it all by yourself. Smaller gifts ($100, $75, $50, $25, $20, $15, $10, $5, $3, $1) are God-sends, too, since the wage-earner in southern India gets only 16¢ a day! . . . Clip the coupon below. Use it for something wonderful right now!

In India, where Hindus are the majority, Catholics number only 1.5%. Still, says Trappist Father Bede Griffiths, there are hints in Hinduism of Christian doctrines which make of it "the most remarkable 'preparation' for Christianity which the world has seen." . . . Train a native priest? He will write to you, and you may write to him. It costs only $8.50 a month ($100 a year, $600 altogether).
