

Kearney Wins Squeaker, 13-12

Bishop Kearney High, down by two touchdowns going into the second half struck back to defeat the Indians of Waterloo 13-12, last week.

Waterloo's fine passing quarterback Chuck Tricker spearheaded their scoring drive late in the first quarter. The Indians recovered a Kearney fumble, and their quarterback fired a touchdown pass to fullback Ed Zukowski. Moments later Indians scored again as speedy halfback Ed Felice returned a punt 84 yards for another touchdown. Both PATs were blocked.

A revitalized Kearney eleven came back fighting in the second half. End Tom Bailey raced for a first down in the third quarter when it was third down and 17 yards to go. Rip Coleman then scored the first Kearney touchdown on a 15 yard run. The PAT was blocked by the Waterloo defense. In the fourth quarter Phil Smith, star quarterback who had been injured previously in practice, rifled a pass to Don Monacell who scored on a fine run the play covering fifty yards. The all important PAT was successful as the Kings took a shaky lead.

With less than five minutes in the game to go the Indians of Waterloo drove hard but could not score when a sure touchdown pass was dropped with only 23 seconds left in the game. Dave Werner, Dan Oberst and Rick Magere were also key men in the Bishop Kearney win. The Kings' next game is Sept. 25 against a rugged Watertown team which defeated them last year.

Aquinas Gets First Test Tonight in Schenectady

By WHIT JOHNSON

Aquinas Institute, bursting with all kinds of muscle and optimism, clashes tonight in Schenectady with Mont Pleasant High School in the season's opener for the Little Irish.

The Little Irish came off a disastrous 1964 football season with high hopes for improvement. The 1-7 season last fall was the worst in the 35-year history of Aquinas football.

Sparked by a new coach, Bob Rosmarino of Holy Cross gridiron fame, and a handful of returnees, spirit runs high at the Dewey Ave. school.

The Irish have three of four backfield lettermen returning and they're good ones. Quarterback Craig Englerth, halfback Pat DiNicola and fullback Don Cannioto. Englerth is both a talented passer and strong runner. He makes the team go. Backing him up are Fred Rechio, Dick Dinolfo and Richard Parinello. Cannioto will be bigger and stronger this year. John White and Dave D'Ettoe back him up.

Pat DiNicola and Don Hall are vying for the No. 1 spot at one halfback post, backed up by Ray Shea and Tom Tytler, while four others are battling for the other spot, including Greg Manley, Terry McCarthy, Bob Farrell and Kevin Neu.

With graduation sweeping out most of the line, most of the spots are wide open. Two players who need not worry about their jobs are tackle George Kirman, a 5-10, 205-pound letterman and guard Dick Gorynski. At the other guard spot, Dan Seeley will see action on the line. The Crusaders of Mount Carmel High School of Auburn have a new football coach and Athletic Director, Ron Carnicella. Coach Carnicella comes to Mt. Carmel from Lancaster Catholic High, Pa., where he compiled an impressive four year record of 29-10-1.

Cross Country Meet Slated At McQuaid

McQuaid Jesuit High School will sponsor its first annual invitational cross-country meet on Oct. 9, with a state-wide entry of runners expected to compete.

The meet, first in this area since the Brighton Invitational was discontinued four years ago, will present three races: a freshman-junior high race at 11 a.m., followed by junior varsity and varsity races. The latter two will be over a 2.5 mile road course mapped out by McQuaid coach Bob Bradley in cooperation with Brighton police chief Carlton Fitch. The Brighton and Rochester police departments will provide escort protection for the runners as they race through the residential areas close to McQuaid's campus at Elmwood and Clinton.

Early entries have already been received from schools in Schenectady, Syracuse, and New York City to go with the local entries. Area schools whose schedules prevent a full varsity entry have been invited to make individual entries and to enter team in the other two races. In all, a field of about 15 schools will compete for championship honors.

Mt. Carmel Wins, 46-0

Mt. Carmel High got off to a running start in its 1965 campaign with a resounding 46-0 win over Bishop Ludden High of Syracuse last week.

Displaying a wide open pro type offense, the husky Crusaders built up a 26-6 halftime lead against the Gaelic Knights of Syracuse. Carmel's early drive was sparked by the explosive running of Paul Picciano, a senior and co-captain. His first touchdown was for 38 yards; his second came from a 10 yard pass from quarterback, Tim Bergan, when he sped 33 yards, outrunning the secondary. Picciano hit paydirt for the third time when he scooted around left end for 68 yards.

Another key play for the winners was a pass from Bergan to Jim Gagnier, a rangy end who caught the ball over his shoulders and ran 30 yards for the TD. Sub quarterback, Billy Foster, a promising sophomore, hit Gary Salvage in the end zone, late in the third quarter. Carmel's final score was made when senior Mike Saunders returned a Ludden punt 48 yards for a touchdown.

Outstanding on defense for Mt. Carmel were linebackers Mike Walker, Tom Prystal and Dick Rusinko, while on the big line sophomore Teddy Freeman (206), seniors Don Tonzi (220), Don Dello Stritto (215) and Francis DeFavero (205) were standouts.

This year, the Crusaders of Mount Carmel High School of Auburn have a new football coach and Athletic Director, Ron Carnicella. Coach Carnicella comes to Mt. Carmel from Lancaster Catholic High, Pa., where he compiled an impressive four year record of 29-10-1.

The Crusades, a member of the Wayne Finger Lake Football Conference along with Seneca Falls, Clyde, Geneva, Waterloo, Lyons, Penn Yan and DeSales of Geneva, open their league game this Saturday at Penn Yan.

Notre Dame in 13-13 Tie

Elmira—Elmira's Notre Dame gridders and Southside High School's Green Hornets battled to a 13-13 tie Saturday night at Parker Field before 3400 fans.

Notre Dame, with a veteran backfield and heavy line, was a slight pre-game favorite. Southside was fighting to keep a two-game lead in the series, which now stands 3-1-1 for the Green Hornets.

N.D.'s main highlight was co-captain Joe Cascio, who rambled for 57 yards in 10 carries. He scored the tying touchdown and set up the first one, scored on a twelve-yard scamper by Pete DeSocio.

The Crusaders' next game will be against Bradford Catholic at Bradford Saturday, Sept. 25. Bradford is reputed to have a good team, with fast backs and an offense similar to that used by N.D.

Mooney Jolts Knights in 41-13 Win

By JESS HEWITT

History of a sort was made at Aquinas Stadium last Sunday as McQuaid Jesuit High and Cardinal Mooney High met for the first time in varsity football and the Knights went reeling home on the short end of a 41-13 score.

This Saturday both schools face out-of-town rivals, Mc-

Quaid hosting a tough Batavia team and Mooney traveling to Notre Dame of Utica.

Mooney's well-honed ground game not only made coach Tony Meola a happy man but drove the Cards to the highest total yet amassed against a McQuaid varsity eleven. Fullback Dick Musclow had himself a field day at the Knights' expense, churning out 178 yards on 25 carries, scoring 3 times himself and aiding mightily in two other scores. Those came on passes from quarterback Bill Harrington to halfback Bill Walker after Musclow's shots at tackle had drawn in the McQuaid secondary.

For those in the crowd of 4,000 who stayed until the end, the last Mooney TD was the one they went away talking about. With McQuaid shooting for its third score in the final 5 seconds of play, Mooney defender Jim Butler intercepted Tom Miller's short pass in the end zone, shook loose from the tacklers all the way down the sideline for a 103-yard touchdown run.

McQuaid, which outgained its foe, 302 yards to 272, and looked unexpectedly effective in the aerial department, hurt itself with 4 fumbles. The first stalled a 60-yard drive in the opening quarter, and the other three put the Cards in business for short touchdown drives of less than 30 yards.

Neither team scored in the first period, but Mooney was in the middle of a 78-yard march when the teams changed fields. The Cards went over one play later when Musclow busted off his left tackle, cut to the outside, and went 35 yards to pay dirt. Older brother Jim, Musclow booted the first of his 4 PAT's and Mooney led, 7-0.

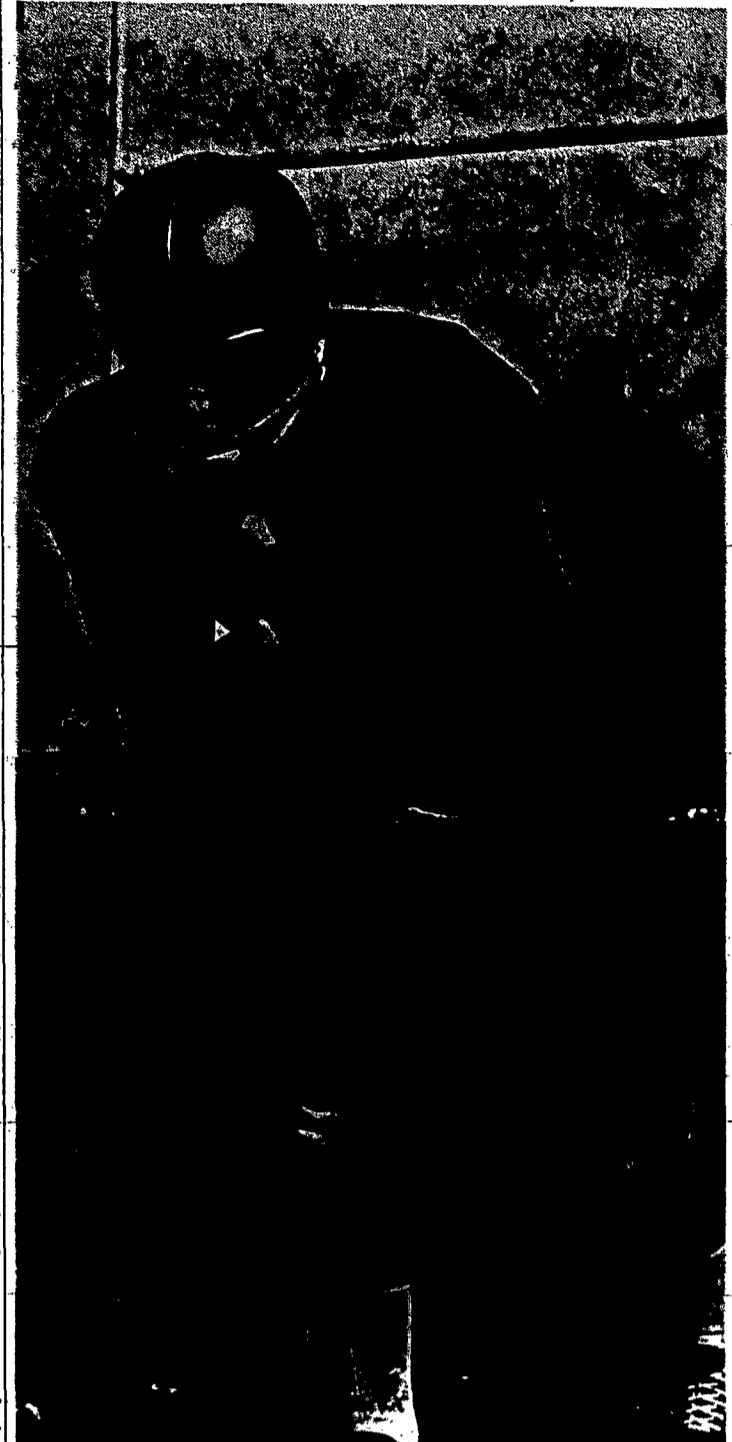

Five minutes later, a booming punt by Jim Musclow slipped through McQuaid hands and gave Mooney a shot from the Knights' 28. McQuaid appeared to have halted the threat when Mike LaForce broke through to spill Harrington back to the 18-yard line for a 4th and 13 situation, but Harrington ran wide on the next play and found Walker alone in the end zone for the TD pass.

McQuaid came back then to narrow the halftime count to 14-7 with a 47-yard drive following Steve Hromjak's 23-yard kickoff return. Mike Millner and Mark Schiller collaborated for 2 first downs on the ground, and Millner, with 2nd and 2 from the 10, hit Steve Rooney with a lob into the right sector of the end zone. Schiller scooted outside for the extra point.

At the outset of the second half, the Knights mounted a drive to Mooney's 31, but a fumble turned the ball over and Musclow led a march of 69 yards for the ultimate winning touchdown. After the Mooney workhorse had banged out 41 yards on 6 carries, the Cards switched to the air again and Harrington found Walker alone on an identical pass pattern, this time for 13 yards and the TD.

The Cards cashed in on McQuaid fumbles to run the count up to 34-7 before Miller's 7-yard keeper got McQuaid on the board again late in the fourth quarter. Miller's passes had the Knights heading, for another when Butler stepped in for his spectacular closing act.

Big Day For Musclow

Dick Musclow, Mooney's 190-pound fullback, ran wild against McQuaid last Sunday, leading his club to a 41-13 triumph. The junior back ground out 178 yards running, carried for three touchdowns.

Irish Harriers Open in Utica

A promising crop of newcomers plus three returning lettermen make up Aquinas Institute's 1965 cross country team which opens its schedule in Utica, Saturday, Sept. 25, against Proctor High School.

The Irish harriers have been going through their paces under the supervision of coach Thomas Bales, C.S.B., and Rev. Donald McCarthy, C.S.B., newly appointed director of track and field events at Aquinas.

Heading the returnees are senior Wayne Krug and juniors Bob Testa and Don Holden. Adding depth are veteran runners Dennis Clarke, Dick Fitz Harris and Dave Cronmiller. Coach Bales is also impressed with newcomer Tpm Collister, a junior, who has shown great potential in pre-season drills.

MORE PROGRAMS    DEPENDABLE SETS    LOWER PRICES

What's kept you from putting a color TV set in your home? The cost? Dependability of the sets? Lack of color programs? Now you can forget all those reasons. The cost for color sets is lower than ever. Some manufacturers have a set priced below $300. They're dependable, too. Just as dependable as black and white. After your set has been installed and adjusted, you can sit back and enjoy sharp, clear pictures with vivid true-to-life colors. Simplified controls make it easy to "tune in" your favorite color show without trouble.

And there's quite a line-up of color shows scheduled—more than 100 shows will be telecast in color every week in the Rochester area. And there are more to come later in the year. There'll be sport shows, dramas, musicals, variety programs, movies, quiz and panel shows, cartoons, westerns, adventure and spy stories, and a number of specials shown in color—something for everyone.

Why not visit your appliance dealer's showroom and see a demonstration. Do it soon, it's expected there will be a shortage of color sets in the next few months.
