

Joe Stoecklein Funeral Held

Funeral Mass for Joseph J. Stoecklein was offered Thursday, Sept. 9 at Holy Redeemer Church. The solemn requiem Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph E. Vogt assisted by Very Rev. John Clerk-in, C.S.S.R., deacon and Rev. George J. Weinmann, sub-deacon.

The Reverend Fathers Bradley, James Doyle, Paul R. Schnackey, William J. Schifferli and Raymond J. Wahl were in the sanctuary.

Mr. Stoecklein lived most of his life on Herman Street having moved with his sisters, the Misses Martha and Gertrude Stoecklein to Burwell Road several years ago when the Herman Street property was taken over for urban renewal. He was a well known carpenter and had unusual zeal in doing all he could for the church. He was an usher for many years at Holy Redeemer, a member of the Holy Name Society, Nocturnal Adoration Society and the H.R.A.A. Much of his carpentry ability was devoted to helping on various jobs at Holy Redeemer, St. Josephs and St. Philip Neri Churches.

Mrs. Kleehammer Mass Offered

A solemn requiem Mass was offered Monday, Sept. 20, for Constance Bates Kleehammer at St. Augustine Church. Her brother-in-law, Rev. Francis A. Kleehammer was celebrant, assisted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Duffy as deacon and Rev. Michael Reagan, sub-deacon.

Present in the sanctuary were: Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Naughton and the Reverend Fathers Paul Cloonan, Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., Albert Gaelsens, C.S.B., Thomas W. Burr, Francis J. Erb and Elmer McDonald. Interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mrs. Kleehammer, 42, of 87 Warwick Ave. died Sept. 15, 1965.

Surviving are her husband, Lester J. Kleehammer; her daughter, Karen; six sons, Lester Jr., Lawrence, Kevin, Francis, Gregory, and Mark; four brothers, Allyn, Edward, Fredric and Arthur Bates; three sisters, Mrs. Arthur (Evelyn) D'Annunzio, Mrs. Paul (Lillian) Lux, and Mrs. Harold (Mildred) White; several nieces and nephews.

She was a member of St. Augustine's Rosary Society and of Aquinas Institute Mothers Club.

Arrangements were by Matte Funeral Home, Culver Road.

15 Baptized in Korean Rite

Seoul—(NC)—Fifteen prominent Koreans were baptized in a group by Archbishop Paul M. Ro of Seoul in the parish church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary here.

Among those baptized were two former cabinet ministers, four former National Assemblymen, a former attorney general of Korea, a famous painter and some well known educators. Six wives were baptized with their husbands. Four other women brought the group to 25.

Newman Group Drops 'Club'

New York — (NC) — By an almost unanimous voice vote some 900 Newman Congress delegates voted to strike the word "Club" from the title of the National Newman Club Federation and to substitute the word "Student."

According to Ray Ferrick, congress information officer and a student at Hunter College here, the action ended agitation going back some five years to eliminate the word "club," which had often assumed a wrong connotation that Newmanites were primarily oriented toward social and recreational goals.

Area English Teachers To Meet At St. Agnes

All area English teachers on Julian Granberry of St. John Fisher College and Dr. Henry Sustakowski of the University of Buffalo, will explain the theory behind the project.

Four teachers from Gates-Chili High School engaged in the program will follow up this theory with an explanation and exposition of actual techniques in this type of teaching.

The Rochester Area English Council was formed by a group of interested teachers from schools here just recently. Its purpose is to discuss problems.
