

Daniel Walz Heads '66 Class

Seniors at St. John Fisher College have elected Daniel A. Walz, 24 Crestridge Lane, Irondequoit, to be president of the Class of '66. Walz, a biology major at Fisher, is a McQuaid Jesuit graduate.

Runner-up in the balloting was David M. McEneaney, 472 Hollywood Blvd., Webster. He will serve as vice-president. McEneaney, who is editor of the Fisher yearbook, also attended McQuaid.

Robert P. Cellura, 20 Culbertson Dr., Irondequoit, an alumnus of Monroe High School, was named class secretary. Edward P. Powderly, 85 Rosewood Ter., an Aquinas Institute graduate, will serve as treasurer.

OSY Deanery Meeting Set

Mrs. John Egan will preside at the business session. Mrs. Dennis MacNahara, treasurer, will present a budget and Mrs. Victor Tischer will comment on cost and expenses.

Refreshments will be served by St. Patrick's Rosary and Altar Society. All are welcome.

Ball On The Mall

By LOUISE WILSON

Louise Wilson is heard twelve times weekly on Station WHAM, 9:10 and 9:25 A.M. Monday through Friday; 9:30 A.M. and 12:30 P.M. Saturday.

A real-life Prince and Princess will dance and an opera star will not only sing but also do the commentary during the Italian Charity Ball this coming Saturday on the mall of Midtown. Princess Marcella Borghese with her Prince will arrive from Rome to be among the honored guests during the festive evening which includes cocktails, dinner, dancing and a showing of Italian fashions including the princess' own original, exclusive designs.

The glorious voice of Vivienne Della Chiesa, renowned star of opera, will be heard in both song and commentary, thanks to the B. Forman Company, the Rochester Boys' Town of Italy and the Kiwanis Club of Rochester. Proceeds from the profits will be contributed to the Boys' Town of Italy and the Kiwanis Charity Fund.

Models from both New York City and Rochester will show Italian-origins-by-such-outstanding designers as Emilio Pucci, Fabiani, Nora Aponte and Princess Marcella Borghese.

One of the favorites of the princess will be modeled. It's one she often wears herself on the streets of Rome. In bright Borgese blue, it's a knit suit with a most capacious fringed stole with which she completely envelops herself.

Pucci is dramatically representative in the fashion show and one of his most outstanding is his famous and fabulous "pant suit" short in front and dipping low in back, reminiscent of the robe de style of former years.

Fabiani of Rome has several in the B. Forman show this coming Saturday but one slated for sure success is a completely reversible costume in cashmere and wool.

Nora Aponte who's expected to be present in person will see one of her several costumes as a real show-stopper. It's a skimmer, for at home year, in two shades of blue wool richly beaded in still a third, slightly lighter shade of blue. It rides high above the knee and with it the model wears Aponte's leotards and little boots of matching beaded fabric.

In a city where fashion shows are frequently presented to enthusiastic audiences—this coming fashion extravaganza promises to cause considerable eye-popping!

Fashion director J. Robert Fagan who gave us a sneak preview of the fabulous clothes to be featured is more than usually excited about the whole show.

"The colors are so great," he exclaims, "really bright rich shades and in stunning combinations, pulsating pinks and vibrant greens." This you might expect when the show includes Pucci, among others, whose wild combinations of color are almost his trademark.

"The fabrics, too are nothing short of sensational," Mr. Fagan continued, "and they range from interesting knits to richly beaded silk brocades. You'll see everything from smart at-home clothes to the most elegant ball gowns." But the highlight of it all, in his opinion, will be the extensive collection of pants for every occasion from late-day to formal year.

Italian designer, Princess Marcella Borghese.

Color is better in Color

Tired of glorious black & white? Enjoy 1,095 days of living color while you pay for your set.

That kind of talk would have a pretty hollow ring if only a handful of the shows were in color. But this is the big year. Two Rochester channels will have over 90% of the evening programs in color. Another will have over 90% in color. And should you still harbor that scary memory of high priced sets, you're in for a pleasant surprise. So why wait? When, by asking your dealer to arrange Lincoln Rochester bank-rate financing, you can spread out the cost over 3 years. That's 1,095 days to enjoy color. Down with black and white.
