

Appalachian Priest at Mercy

Father Ralph Beiting, (center) pastor of the four-county district in eastern Kentucky Appalachia area, spoke at Mercy High last week. In the picture are Rev. Thomas O'Brien, assistant at St. Lawrence Parish, Greece, who took a group of Rochester lay workers to Appalachia this summer; Frances Carlin and Kathy Moore, Mercy students who were in Father O'Brien's group; and Rosemarie Kolmer, prefect of Mercy's Christian Leadership Group at whose invitation Father Beiting spoke.

DR. JAMES KOLLER, chairman of the planning committee discusses the agenda with leaders of the Catholic High Science-Math Seminar: (seated) Paul Chachak, Aquinas, vice president; Elaine Tunaitis, Nazareth Academy, treasurer; (standing) Al Mercury, Aquinas, president; Marguerite De Yaeger, secretary.

National Honor Society officers Sara Zurenda (secretary), Daniel Skizim (treasurer), John Irwin (president) and Sharon Blake (vice-president) admire the new Honor Roll plaque presented to the school by Notre Dame's class of 1966. Members of the National Honor Society must average 90% or above in all major subjects. 31 seniors and 29 juniors presently meet qualifications.

Scholarship Noted

Four students at Nazareth Academy have been honored with Letters of Commendation for their high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring.

The commended students are: Bonnie Claes, Julie Mahan, Mary Anne Mercier and Kathleen Rowling.

of their principal, Sister Marie Margaret, the student body of St. Agnes High School sang the Mass offered for Sister's intentions this morning in the school auditorium.

For the first high Mass to be sung in English at St. Agnes, Sister Claudia, instructor in choral music, chose that composed by Virginia Bogdon Pados, entitled "No Greater Love."

mer, Joseph Paganelli, Kevin Frawley, Thomas Hanrahan and Jacques Mauche. These new Council members will keep their homerooms informed on activities of the Student Council, and will speak for their classmates at Council meetings.

Win Scholarships

Three triumphant passes from St. Agnes High School carried home the first St. Agnes Honors Assembly certificates signifying $100 tuition scholarships. Sister Marie Margaret, principal, presented these awards to senior Eileen Shaughnessy, junior Nancy Bachofer, and sophomore Kathleen Cretelli.

Through music and interpretive speech the story of the founding of the Sisters of St. Joseph in France was told. The pageant opened in 1650 on a dramatic note of conflict, opposition to the established idea of a "Registered 11th" for nuns. Despite obstacles, this new foundation incorporated the active and contemplative in its rule for religious. Then followed the call to the new world, America, and finally, to South America. Having begun on a look to the past, the pageant ended on a glimpse into the future.

40 Tour McAuley

Forty members of the Future Teachers of America at Notre Dame made a field trip to Catherine McAuley College in Rochester Oct. 12. The girls visited classes and were guests of the activities of the Student Council, and will speak for their classmates at Council meetings.

According to the tradition begun last year, the student in each class who attains the highest average among those in her class who do not have a scholarship is awarded this partial scholarship. Eileen's average for last year was 91.7, Nancy's, 92.5, and Kathleen's, 96.0.

Active CSMC Unit

"The Role of the Laity in the Work of the Church" is the theme of Cardinal Mooney's Catholic Students' Mission Crusade for 1965-66. A series of speakers will acquaint the members with the many lay volunteer groups working for world betterment.

Field Hockey Game

The Academy of the Sacred Heart will entertain as their guests, the hockey team of the Sacred Heart School, Nottingham Terrace, from Buffalo, during the weekend of Oct. 15. They will arrive Friday afternoon to match hockey sticks with Rochester's Academy team. The Nottingham girls will then be entertained at the homes of several local students. Saturday morning they will watch the U.S. Reserves play the Glabits (Great Britain Hockey Team) at Gates-Chill High School.

Other students acclaimed were the five seniors who received Letters of Commendation in the National Merit Scholarship program: Nancy Helget, Carolyn McDonald, Anne Murrer, Ann Vander Hoeven, and John Weber. These latter students place next to the Semifinalists among the top two per cent of senior high school students across the nation.

Science Seminar

Our Lady of Mercy High School will again host the Inter-Catholic High Science-Math Seminar. The Seminar was formed seven years ago for the scientifically-inclined Catholic high school students of the Rochester area.

Founders Day

The Student Council of Nazareth Academy marked Founders Day Friday, Oct. 15, with a pageant in the auditorium.

Officers of this year's C.S.M.C. include Joseph Menard, president; Barbara Blind, vice president; Diana Thompson, corresponding secretary; Margaret Walker, recording secretary; Daniel Shoniker, treasurer; and James Barabato, sergeant-at-arms. Brother Hugh McCabe, C.S.C., is now moderator in the boys' department; Sister Mary Gerard continues as moderator of the girls.

At District Meet

Notre Dame of Elmira was one of sixty-two high schools which participated in the workshop sponsored by District XI of the New York State Association of Student Councils in Cortland on Oct. 11. Representatives from Notre Dame were John Russell, Teresa Rodzai, Jane Cummings, Lawrence Brown, Mary P. McCarthy, Peter Perfetti and Eileen Crescenzi. Sister Mary Jonatha, Student Council moderator at Notre Dame, is also moderator of the District XI unit. Main speaker at the meeting was Robert Kane, a former member of John F. Kennedy's famed PT 109 crew.

Chemistry Seminars

The New York Science Teachers Association in cooperation with the American Chemical Society is sponsoring a 12-week program for area chemistry teachers at Fairport Junior High School to prepare them for the new New York State Chemistry syllabus.

Each Catholic high school has been invited to send ten or more representatives from its senior, junior, and sophomore classes to attend the weekly conferences and cycles offered during the school year.

Outdoor Prayer Day

The Sodality of Our Lady at Nazareth Academy will hold a Day of Recollection at Letchworth Park Saturday, Oct. 16, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. The theme of the event is included in its title, "Day of Christian Joy."
