Dr. Charles Maggio is General Chairman for the appeal. Dr. Joseph Plukas and Dr. Victor Tofany are Advance Gifts Vice-Chairmen. General Vice-Chairmen are Robert Morrison, James Bauman, William Finn, Dr. Anthony Talamas, John Schottmiller, and Joseph Audino, Irving Peachey, Claton Fink, Elmer Metz, Dewain Feller, Don Frederico, William Arndt, William Pinkerton and Felix Cushman.

C. G. Miller Dies at 93

Solemn Funeral Mass for Charles G. Miller was offered in Mother of Sorrows Church, Friday, Oct. 15. Mr. Miller, 93, of Olean, Rochester signmaker for 64 years, died Oct. 12, 1965.

The Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. George S. Wood assisted by Rev. William E. Hogan, deacon, and Rev. Eugene R. Weis, subdeacon. Also present were Rev. Charles Adams, O.F.M. and Rev. C. A. Welch, O.F.M.

Mr. Miller retired 2 1/2 years ago and moved from Burlington Avenue here to Olean where his son, A. Jerome Miller is registrar at St. Bonaventure University. His career covered lettering on Erie Canal boats, painting crosses atop local churches and door lettering on downtown office buildings.

Besides his son, A. Jerome Miller, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William (Marion) de Coca, Mrs. Lawrence (Virginia) Walker; seven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Arrangements by Alvah Halloran and Son.

Canandaigua Dance Planned

Teenagers at Worship

Critics of the younger generation should have been at St. John's Church in the Town of Greece Sunday evening.

At least 300 teenagers—all members of the Sodality of our Lady—attended a Mass celebrated by their priest directors.

The church's dramatic setting was reflected in the obvious sincere devotion of the young worshippers.

Sodality director Father Michael Volpe said the monthly holy hour of previous years is being replaced by a series of varied spiritual programs this year—beginning with Sunday's evening Mass.

Subsequent monthly devotions will include one of the traditional type holy hours, an evening focused on the Rosary and a tribute to the Blessed Virgin Mary, a service centered on Scripture readings and other appropriate rites.

Richard Quatert Work On Display at College

The work of prize-winning photographer, Richard J. Quatert, is currently on display on the third floor of Smyth Hall, Nazareth College. The exhibit is scheduled through the end of this month.

Educated in local schools, Quatert received his A.A.S. in photo illustration from the Rochester Institute of Technology.

He has won various medals and trophies for his exhibition work in Spain, Portugal, France, Africa, Hong Kong, Chile, Singapore, Czechoslovakia, Uruguay, and the United States. To date he has had 118 exhibitions in 17 states and 18 countries.

Among the subjects of his color prints on display are children, jewelry, landscapes, flowers, and interiors (one in particular of St. John's Church in Greece).

There is also a student exhibit, which appears in the cases along the wall. It includes ceramic work, wire sculpture, water colors, metal workings and lettering.
