

Nurse-Author, Speaker At Catholic Nurses Meeting

The two-day Regional Conference for Catholic Nurses will feature Viola Bredenberg, R.N., of St. Louis, Miss., author of "Nursing Service Research," as principal banquet speaker for its Nov. 19 and 20 meeting on Long Island.

Miss Bredenberg is assistant director of nursing for the Catholic Hospital Association in St. Louis. Nurses from all parts of New York and New Jersey will attend the conference at the Sheraton-Tenney Inn, Elmhurst, Queens.

"Challenges for the Catholic Nurse Today" is the theme of the conference and individual sessions will focus on Family Planning, Civil Rights, and Ecumenism.

Bishop Brian J. McEntegart of the Brooklyn Diocese is hosting the event which is sponsored by the Brooklyn Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses.

Mrs. Madeline Eckert, Rochester Diocesan Council President, may be contacted at 35 Down Street, Rochester, New York 14623; or at ED 4-3365 for further information.

Sister St. Andrew Rites Held At Holy Angels

Funeral Mass for Sister Mary of St. Andrew Zimmer was offered in Holy Angels Home Chapel, Thursday, Nov. 4. Sister Andrew, 71 of the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity, for more than 30 years laundress at the Home, 1326 Winton Road North, Irondequoit, died Nov. 1, 1965.

The Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. John R. Whitley, C.S.B. assisted by Rev. Francis M. Feeney. Also attending were Very Rev. Fergus Sheehy, C.S.B., Rev. Leon Hart, C.S.B. and Rev. Robert Meng, R. Rev. Msgr. Francis B. Burns and the Sisters sang the Mass responses.

Bearers were relatives of Sister Mary Andrew.

Sister Andrew was so expert that many housewives took their prized curtains and tablecloth to Holy Angels Home for her to launder. Proceeds from her work went to the Home fund.

She also cultivated the Home's garden which provided flowers for the chapel altar.

Sister Mary Andrew was born in Webster, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zimmer and entered the community in Buffalo in March 1922. She took

Sullivan Takes St. Bona Post

St. Bonaventure—John B. Sullivan of Berkeley, Calif., has been named to the newly-created position of assistant to the president for development at St. Bonaventure University, the Very Rev. Francis W. Kearney, OFM, announced today.

Born and raised in Rochester, Sullivan was graduated from St. Bonaventure in 1941. He is returning to Bonaventure from the West Coast where he has been Western Regional Manager for Community Counseling Service since 1958.

While a student at St. Bonaventure, Sullivan served as a student senator for three years, headed the senate as president in his senior year, and was named "Ideal Bonaventure Man" at graduation.

He is married to the former Florence Stiles of Olean. They have three sons, Thomas, John, and Jerome. He is the son of Mrs. Harriet Sullivan, widow of Rochester's late assistant postmaster, John J. Sullivan. She resides at 79 Kron Street in Rochester.
