Top Mercy Workers
Two Mercy High School seniors have earned awards for their promotion of school projects.

Kathy McElligott was named Mission Day queen, and Rosemarie Kolmer became Miss Publications at the end of the publication Patron Drive, securing $250 in patrons. This is the third year each has won the title.

Miss McElligott led in efforts for Mercy's recent Mission Day. Elaine Bromka was a close second to her.

Boom in Paper
Because the paper drive sponsored by the C.S.M.C. was so successful, it was held over until this week when a third truck was loaded. Cows for Appalachia, the goal of the drive, is now assured.

Play at Festival
Three Mercy High School freshmen participated in the Area All-State Junior High Music Festival held at Fairport High School November 19 and 20. They were violinists Mary Koe and Donna Martin and clarinetist Terri Gerhardt.

Visit State School
Newark State School was the destination Sunday, Nov. 21, of over twenty members of Mercy High School's McAuley Club, a social service group.

The group plans to spend one afternoon a month visiting at Newark, according to Jeanne Cannon, president of the McAuley Club.

20 on Retreat
Twenty Mercy High School students made a weekend retreat at the Center for the Deaf, according to Father James Malone, S.J., who was the Retreat Master. Arrangements were made by office of the Christian Leadership Program at Mercy.

3 At Convention
The National Council of the Teachers of English convention being held in Boston this weekend (Nov. 25-27) numbers among its participants, three Sisters of Mercy from Rochester: Sister Mary Federal, Our Lady of Mercy High School; Sister Mary Cornillius, Notre Dame High, Elmira; and Sister Marie Justin, Good Shepherd School.

Gobalung Hop
Gobalung Hop, a Thanksgiving dance sponsored by Cardinal Mooney's Student Council, will be held Friday night, Nov. 26, in the school cafeteria. The Turbulence will furnish music from 8:30 to 11:15 p.m.

Bonnie Hewes, sophomore, is in charge of decorations while Carol Nafziger will supervise checking. Mark Kesselring and James Wallace are in charge of refreshments and clean-up.

Hear PC Veteran
Kathy Chapman, a member of the Peace Corps in Panama for two years, spoke to the student body of Our Lady of Mercy High School on Nov. 18.

Miss Chapman, who served in Panama during the Panamanian uprisings, told of her w.r. and showed slides to a smaller group of students after the assembly.

Dan Morgan Receives Pop Warner Award

Dan Morgan, "Manager Dan" on Channel 13's "Funny Company" is the first in New York State to receive the nation-wide service to youth award of the Pop Warner Junior Football League.

It is the highest award granted by the young boys' organization.

Other persons who have won this award in past years include all-American Jim Thorpe, General Douglas MacArthur and Walt Disney.

Morgan has also headed a drive to adopt underprivileged children from overseas by area boys and girls through the Foster Parent Plan.

His program has also won citations from both the United States Senate and House of Representatives as well as being elected the top live-wire Funny Co. program in the nation in 1964.

DAN MORGAN

The highlights of Britain during fall, winter and spring will be seen in the color film "Three Seasons" on the Family Program at Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences, Sunday, Dec. 5 at 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. Included will be a visit to the Royal Ballet starring Margot Fonteyn and the Old Vic fox hunt, horse show, concerts and a few of the celebrations on Christmas and New Year.

The second film, "Adventures in the Reefs" will show underwater scenes in the coral reefs and the colorful fish and moray eel to be found there.

Syracuse Retreatants

Seventy-two seniors from the Christian Brothers Academy, Syracuse made a midweek retreat at Notre Dame, the laymen's retreat house for the Diocese of Rochester, 246 Alexander St.

During the retreat, three Catholic laymen spoke of the "ideal" of Christianity in college life and in the business world. After all the conferences, the boys, in groups of ten, worked on special projects pertaining to the conference's topic.

In the evening, individual boys explained the results of these projects to the whole retreat group. Although a work-out, the seniors said they found the retreat to be extremely dynamic.

Singing Sisters Set By Mercy Hospital

Atburn — The Franciscan Sisters who operate Mercy Hospital have arranged for the appearance of the Singing Sister of Syracuse to appear in a concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 7 at Mount Carmel High School Auditorium.

The concert will be for the benefit of the building fund of the Franciscan Sisters.

The 90 member group is under the direction of Sister M. Eloise.

Charles F. Smith Requiem Offered

Funeral Mass for Charles P. Smith was offered in Immaculate Conception Church, Wednesday, Nov. 17, Mr. Smith, 43 Greig St., died Nov. 14, 1965.
