A New Way To Serve God

Boston — (RNS) — Cardinal Cushing of Boston predicted here that the diaconate would play a role of vastly increased importance within the Roman Catholic Church in the coming years.

The prelate, addressing a Women's Guild organization, expressed the hope that the order of the diaconate "would be revived as the goal of men who wish to serve God but who do not wish to be priests."

Cardinal Cushing said he believes that ordained deacons, who can be married or single would increasingly assume some of the functions now generally performed by priests, including preaching, instruction, distribution of Holy Communion, attending the dying, and other works.

The Boston churchman pointed to the shortage of priests, especially in Latin America which he said needs 150,000 priests "to give adequate instruction." He said appointment of deacons will be part of the answer.

Priests and the laity have a "tremendous responsibility," said the cardinal, to implement the decisions of the Vatican Council but the effects of the session will not be seen "in all their fullness for at least 25 years."

Nazareth Hall Card Party—Jan. 19

LOOKING POISED AND READY for the Nazareth Hall Card Party on Wednesday, Jan. 19 are, from left, chairman, Mrs. George Farrell, co-chairman, Mrs. David Buckley and the principal of the Cadet School, Sister Mary Alma, S.S.J. Public is invited to the affair which starts at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium at Raines Park and Alameda St. Proceeds go to the school's building fund. Coffee and cake will follow the cards.

Pilgrim Visits of Pope, Symbol of Council Spirit

The "pilgrim visits" of Pope Paul VI to the Holy Land, India and the United Nations headquarters symbolize the new enthusiasm in the Church stirred by the Vatican II Council, a priest told Serra Club members last week.

FATHER GERALD KRIEG, secretary of the Diocesan Marriage Tribunal, spoke of his impressions of the Council, gained on a visit to Rome last fall. He addressed the monthly meeting of the Serra Club at the Manger Hotel.

The Pope's unprecedented journeys and his encouragement to the Council Fathers helped strengthen the ongoing spirit of the Council, Father Krieg felt.

The speaker described some of the great moments of his visit to his hearers:

—Seeing 2,400 bishops gathered for the opening meeting of the 4th Session provided an idea of "the immensity and the diversity" of the Catholic Church.

—Kneeling at St. Peter's Tomb one day, while only a few feet above the 21st Ecumenical Council was meeting, provided him with fresh realization of the historic line which flows from the Church of the Apostles to today's Church.

To his Serra hearers, who are especially concerned in the promotion of priestly and religious vocations, Father Krieg stressed:

"To maintain the enthusiasm of Vatican II Council, we need more such vocations, especially for Asia and Latin America."
