

Life Program Rescheduled

Laymen, undaunted by the "act of God" which snowed-out their first attempt, will try again to probe His call to them at a University of Life program on three Sunday evenings in Webster.

Four courses, sponsored by the Webster Council of Churches and in cooperation with Holy Trinity and St. Rita's Catholic parishes, will study the Christian's mission in the fields of economics, politics, the arts and interchurch relationships.

Sessions begin with a buffet at 5:30 p.m. at the Webster Baptist Church and include either a worship service or drama and lectures.

The Jan. 23 session has been rescheduled for Feb. 13.

Registration may be made with William Hespeneheide or with the pastors of the participating churches.

Dance Listed

A dance sponsored by St. Mary Our Mother parish, Horseheads, will be held tonight (Friday) in the gymnasium beginning at 9.

Music will be provided by the Carlton Dartt Orchestra.

This is a project of the Altar and Rosary Society under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. William Cumiskey.

Refreshments will be served.

Thomas Milligan Named Manager

The appointment of Thomas D. Milligan as manager, Uni-Pay Department of Marine Midland Trust Company of Southern New York, Elmira, was announced this week by J. Lawrence Kolb, senior vice president.

The Marine Midland Uni-Pay plan is designed to simplify and expedite the collection and payment of commercial freight bills between a carrier and a shipper-receiver.

Milligan was born in Walton, N.Y., graduated from Binghamton Central High School, the American Institute of Banking, and the Storer Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University.

He came to Marine Midland in 1948 and has worked in the personal loan department, Midland Charge Plan department, trust department and at the bank's Southside, Merchants, Elmira Heights, Horseheads and Waverly offices.

Poet Recognized

Notre Dame High of Elmira's Sister Mary Ancilla, moderator of the school paper, Mary Leaf, and of the yearbook, Credo, has had a poem accepted for the National Teachers' Poetry Anthology spring issue. Title of the poem is "A Nun at Her Classroom Door." Her poem was one of a selected number chosen from over 9,000 entries.

Seniors James Ewanyk, Joseph Gott and David Hamilton have also had poems accepted for the National High School Poetry Anthology.

YOU are a newspaper

Without you, the reader, there would be no newspaper. It is your doings that make news, your search for information that make readership, your patronage of advertisers that create revenue. Everything depends on you. That's why we're proud of our acceptance by you! We're pleased that 66,745 families read the local news with only 350 fewer reading the parish news. We're proud that an average of two (2) hours per family is spent reading the Courier each week. And we're encouraged that over 50% of our readers prefer doing business with Courier advertisers and that 31% of our readers have more confidence in Courier ads.

Because you are so important, we, at the Courier constantly strive to give you one of the finest religious newspapers in the country—we pledge to continue to serve you and hope we may continue to merit your confidence and loyalty.

Charles Kelly Heads Conference Lineup

At 35, he points to nine children, a career in public relations, a busy life as director of the successful Christian Action Movement in Boston. Executive Secretary of the National Federation of Sodality in Washington and wide recognition as a talented speaker.

This briefly describes Charles Kelly, who will present the keynote address at the annual Christian Action Conference sponsored by the Rochester Catholic Adult Sodality which will be held this Sunday morning and afternoon Jan. 30, at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, 8 Prince Street.

Kelly, who will speak on the "Role of the Layman in the Church," will be ably assisted by several well-known local speakers in presenting the theme of this year's conference, "The Layman, the Church and the World."

These speakers will include Charles Maloy, Democratic County Chairman, discussing the "Role of the Christian in Politics"; Russ Bishop, Assistant Chaplain at the University of Rochester discussing "Views of God in Modern Theology"; Louis Martin, Assistant Director of the University of Rochester Library discussing "Freedom of Expression and Censorship"; Father Thomas Lenhard, member of the Liturgical Commission of the Diocese of Rochester presenting "The Liturgy—Today and Tomorrow"; and Herbert Wilshire, Dean of Student Affairs, St. John Fisher

CHARLES KELLY

College discussing "The Layman Today."

Kelly's address will be given at a general session at 11:15 a.m. The general session will be followed by a luncheon at 1:30 p.m. the other topics will be presented separately to smaller groups. These small group sessions will be repeated at 2:45 to allow attendance at two different sessions. The speakers will answer questions from the audience after each session.
Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Miss Anne Mura, ID 8-8843. Some tickets for the afternoon sessions will be available at the door. The public is invited.
