Students Air Views
Father Leonard Foley, O.F.M., editor of St. Anthony Messenger, has invited three St. Agnes High School students to submit articles to the magazine's youth column. A forthcoming issue plans to investigate the social communications problems which arise when girls and boys are segregated in separate educational institutions.

Under the auspices of the Student Council, Carol Bollock, senior; Patricia de Camilla, junior; and Patricia Bremer, sophomore, have submitted their views on the topic together with a statement of their attitudes toward dating non-Catholics.

Guest Speakers
Impressed by Cardinal Mooney as a successful co-institutional school, Ontario's Teachers' Federation has invited Brother Daniel Redmond, principal, and Sister Mary Edwina, vice principal, to present the philosophy of their school at St. Catherine's, Ontario on Jan. 27.

Complete with pictures and plans for the future, the principals will explain the school's set-up.

Grant Finalist
Kathryn Dittman, senior at Cardinal Mooney High School, was named a finalist in the Knights of Columbus scholarship competition. Results of the March achievement test will determine the winners.

Kathryn is a member of the National Honor Society, co-editor of the literary magazine, The Myriad, program chairman of the Dramatics Club and a member of the yearbook staff.

HISAE YOGI of Okinawa, Sandy Bariga of Ecuador and Helmut Trenzek of Germany discuss experiences as foreign exchange students at recent assembly at Notre Dame.

Students from Afar
Notre Dame's Student Council recently presented a panel of teenage ambassadors from abroad. Panel moderator Allan Blinier from Horseheads High School represented the American Field Service, through which the students had received scholarships to study in American high schools.

Each student from abroad spoke briefly on the customs, education, sports and dating practices in his country, as compared with the United States.

Helmut Trenzek, senior at Elmira Free Academy, represented Germany; Hisae Yogi, also at Academy, spoke on Okinawa. Sandy Bariga, from Horseheads High School, discussed life in Ecuador, and Cella Maucher, senior at Thomas A. Edison High, represented Chile.

At the conclusion of the program, Margo Golos, senior at Southside High, described her recent trip as an exchange student to Israel.

Film Study Slated

The famed movie, Grapes of Wrath, for Nazareth Academy and Aquinas Institute students will be shown in the Nazareth auditorium on Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 3:15 p.m. Admission is 50 cents.

The following afternoon, a special hour of informal discussion and refreshments will be held in the academy Social Room at 3:15 p.m., at no charge.

This will be the fourth movie and discussion in a series attended by students of the two schools. The previous sessions have been conducted at Aquinas under Father Frederick Wajda, who has trained experience in the field of film study.

Second in Oratory

Notre Dame junior Marcia McCarthy recently captured a second place in the American Legion Oratorical Contest at Elmira College.

Frosh Cagers Lose
Webster Central's basketball team topped St. Agnes High School by the basket for a 14-12 win in St. Agnes' first extramural game of the season, on Jan. 18. Webster's team, coached by Miss Ann Bacon, was the guest of Mrs. Lucille Young's newly formed Freshman Class team.

Other games are scheduled for the near future between the remaining class teams and teams from Franklin, Mooney and Mercy High schools.

Fast Response

"Try to imagine beginning a school of religion with a bare barracks and $13," the letter challenged, so Mary Merklinger, Mission representative for Homeroom 106, suggested that a school-wide collection of colored pictures and small articles which could be used for arts and crafts be conducted by the St. Agnes High School's Mission Unit.

The articles, together with a used portable phonograph and several records, and the girls' January money contributions will be sent to Sister M. Corrine, the former Joan Cook of Driving Park Avenue, recently assigned to open San Luis Center as a religious school in San Antonio, Texas. Sister is a missionary sister of Our Lady of Victory.

The Mission Unit is also collecting old sheets for bandages to be sent to the Medical Mission Board in New York.

Poetry Winners

A recent school-wide poetry contest sponsored by the Spectrum staff of Nazareth Academy brought in a total total of 400 entries.

Winners of the senior-junior division were as follows: Maureen Day and Shannon Wixson, first place; June La Martina, Rita Liotta, and Elaine Turilli, second place; Sharon Barbar, Mary Ellen Buechel, Pamela Ferron, and Christine Lloyd in third place.

QUEEN Patricia Irving is crowned by French Club president Gertrude Hinchcliffe at a recent "Three Kings" ceremony. Other members of the royal court are Linda Beauchamp (standing) and Mary Ann Tabb.

In the sophomore-freshman division, first place winners Donna Lee Maruse and Teresa Miller; second place, Joyce Desmarais, Ellen Mengel, and Rose Verdino; third place, Nikki Holden, Keven Kane, and Patricia Pallone.

At a Winners Party Miss Francesca Guli, Rochester poet and a former Nazareth Academy teacher, read and commented on the poems.

Patricia Irving, secretary of the French Club, and, coincidentally the one who had volunteered to make a crown for the queen, proved to be "her Royal Highness" or "La Reine."

An appropriate song, "J'aimé la galette," closed the festivities.

Layman in Church

Several Cardinal Mooney students will attend an all-day conference at Sacred Heart Academy on Jan. 30. The conference will stress the role of the Church in contemporary society. Attending will be leaders of the Christian Action Movement: Patricia Degus, Thomas Thrasher, Daniel Kavanaugh, Eileen Smith, Peter Salber and Barbara Schaeffer.

Retreat Time

Retreat days are on the schedule for Cardinal Mooney students next week. Conducting this year's program are Fathers George Coby and Dennis McNellis, both Holy Cross priests.

Freshmen and sophomore retreats are on Monday and Tuesday white juniors and seniors will have exercises on Wednesday and Thursday. Friday will be devoted exclusively to seniors. Discussions will stress the important decision-making period between high school and college.

Penfield Parish Hosts High School Forum

Saint Joseph's School in Penfield recently played host to representatives from five area Catholic High Schools. Faculty members and students from these schools participated in a panel discussion on various aspects of "High School Life."

Father John D. Malley, pastor of Saint Joseph's parish welcomed the participants and introduced Father Leon Hart, principal of Aquinas Institute who spoke on the value of Catholic education today. Following his remarks Brother Barry, Freshman guidance counselor at Bishop Kearney High School spoke.

Other high school representatives were Father Robert Keck, Principal and Father Ambuske, Vice-Principal from McQuaid Jesuit; Sister Mary Bryan, guidance counselor at Mercy

Set Magazine Drive

St. Agnes High School will launch its 11th annual Decency in Reading Campaign under the auspices of the Catholic Digest and its representative, Robert Roser of St. Joseph's parish in Penfield, next Thursday, Feb. 3.

Last year the St. Agnes girls overreached their goal of $20,000 by attaining a high total of $27,000 in magazine subscriptions. This year their goal is $24,000 for the ten-day program.

Campaign will be led by chairman Jean Cosad, president of the Business Club and the four class presidents: Mary Ellen Kwiatkowski, Elizabeth Blanda, Margaret Creilly and newly elected Mary Kay Blum.

Members of the Office Practice class will process the subscriptions and deliver the prizes, according to Sister Theresa Daniel, moderator. Rosemary Dowd, senior art student, is advertising chairman.

Prizes for the classes, home-rooms and individuals who are high ranking will be given daily, as well as final grand awards at the end of the campaign.

Apostolic Meet

A group of twenty Christian Action Movement members will attend a Workshop of the Lay Apostolate on February 5 and 6 at the University of Scranton. The program will include workshops and seminars stressing need for high school students in the Lay Apostolate, the areas of work and the techniques.

The group will be led by Father Haycock, Sister Mary Augustine and Sister John Baptist.

Faraway Places
* TRAVEL to distant places has become a matter-of-fact part of the American Way, and unfortunately this "fact of life" automatically carries with it a factor of death. However, the funeral service profession has been amazingly adept in coping with this situation and today death in faraway places can be handled almost as promptly as if it occurred locally. Development of reciprocal arrangement techniques and rapid transit of remains are largely responsible.
