Battle of Bands

De Sales High was the scene of a "rock and roll war" recently, but it was a well-organized one, as five bands from the Geneva area competed for honors. The musical fray was sponsored by the Senior Class to raise money for the annual Senior Ball.

Highlight of the evening was the awarding of a $100 prize to the winning combo, "The Rebels." The trio is made up of DeSales students Dan Feligno, Mike Feligno and Tom Rotolo.

More than 400 area students turned out to dance to, and vote for, the best band.

Fashion Show

Bishop Kearney Mothers' Club members with their pre-teen and teenage daughters will model Spring fashions, Junior Prom and Senior Ball dresses by Flah & Co. of Pittsford Plaza on Tuesday, Feb. 22, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

High school models are: Felice Cerquoni, Mary Chiaromonte, Terri Husted, Maureen Hazel, Patricia Smith, Janet Fischer, Terri Carrillo and Kathy Rooney. The commentator will be Mrs. Edwin Hart, musical accompanist Mrs. Mario Cerame.

Favors and refreshments are included in $1.00 admission fee. This affair is under the chairmanship of Peg Rooney and Rose Carrillo.

Back Good Reading

A major Catholic Press Month project at Nazareth Academy, the Catholic Magazine Subscription Campaign, opens Feb. 25, with a student assembly led by Mr. Robert Roser. The campaign will close March 11.

This local campaign is part of a national effort to eliminate filth from the news stands by getting good literature into the homes.

Nazareth Academy's administration strongly supports this effort to improve the reading habits of students. The press month project will be directed by Sister Mariella, vice principal; Sister Louise, secretary; Marilyn Kalaska and Jean Chachak, student co-chairmen; and homeroom captains.

Prizes will be offered for high sales beyond individual and homeroom quotas. Campaign slogan will be: "Fight That Filth."

Folk Singers in Geneva

"Blowin' in the Wind" is one of the favorite folk songs of three young guitarists and folk singers of St. Stephen's School. Left to right: Celeste Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carroll of 238 Pulteney St., Cheryl Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Matthews of 138 N. Brook St., and Sandra Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cosimo Valentine of West Lake Road.

At Engineer Meet

Five Nazareth Academy students and a member of the NA Faculty attended a meeting sponsored by the Rochester Institute of Technology and the Rochester Engineering Societies at the Eastman Building last Saturday.

Subject of the meeting was "Engineering — Creative Resource for Progress." Participants were given a guided tour of the engineering laboratories to see current teaching and research facilities and special exhibits.

Nazareth students attending were: Margaret Tomczak, Mary Lou Flor, Barbara Gilman, Mary Catherine Duffy, and Michelle Rowan. Sister Mary de Porres, chairman of the academy mathematics department also attended.

Second in Oratory

Mary Claire (Mimi) Kennedy, a Mercy High School senior, won second place in the recent district division of the American Legion's 29th annual oratorical contest, held at Geneva Junior High School. Her victory moves her into the third competition, the zone contest, scheduled for Auburn on Feb. 27.

Charles Tobey of Victor Central School was the winner of the contest.

Miss Kennedy advanced to the district contest in Geneva after she took first place in the Monroe County competition on Jan. 9, in Rochester.

The Constitution of the United States is the contest topic. Miss Kennedy's speech is entitled "Liberty under Law."

In Geneva the Mercy senior vied against six other contestants representing the counties of Ontario, Yates, Steuben, Wayne, Cayuga, and Livingston.

Domestic Talent

As a result of a nationwide written examination taken in December, senior Monica

MONICA REEVES

Reeves has been named Mercy High School's 1966 Betty Crocker Homeemaker of Tomorrow.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Reeves, 1839 Woodard Road, Webster, Monica is now eligible for state and national honors. The state winner will receive a $1500 scholarship; her school will get a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.
