

Maryknoll Nun-Surgeon To Spend Month Here

Maryknoll's well-known nun-surgeon, Sister Ann Veronica, will spend a month in the Diocese of Rochester beginning March 15. No stranger to Rochester, Sister Ann Veronica did her medical internship at St. Mary's Hospital in 1957.

While in this area, she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Spillane, 31 Lawrence Dr., and can be reached, after March 15 by calling TU 9-2873.

She has recently returned from Pusan, Korea where she is Chief of Surgery in the Maryknoll Hospital. She will welcome the opportunity to speak to any interested parish group or organization during her month in this area.

An article about the nun-doctor's missionary career will appear in next week's Courier-Journal.

Greeks Arrest 'Rebel' Prelate

Athens — (RNS)—The longstanding controversy between the Orthodox Church in Greece and the Greek government was climaxed here by the first civil court conviction of an Orthodox prelate in the nation's history.

Charged with illegally "usurping" administrative powers of the Diocese of Piraeus, Metropolitan Christosomos, formerly of Argolis, was given a suspended two-month sentence.

WELL DONE, WELL DONE! is the message portrayed by St. Mary's Hospital Administrator, Sister Margaret, as she thanks Mrs. William Webb for a $21,913 check presented the hospital from the Seton Branches.

TAKING THE HELM of the many-branched Seton organization are these new officers: Seated, from left, Mrs. Joseph McHugh, co-chairman; Mrs. Theodore J. MacDonald, chairman; Mrs. Nicholas A. Nicosia, Treasurer. Standing are Mrs. Robert T. Howe, first vice-chairman and Mrs. John V. Wright, recording secretary.

THE MARSHALL J. SMITHS

Marshall Smith, Aquinas '39, and Bernadine, a Mothers' Club member, took charge of scheduling, transportation and persuasion, and came through the several fitting sessions unruffled.

"After all, we took them to the World's Fair, we thought we could handle this," said Bernadine.

Western footwear chosen for the younger boys wiped out one pocket of resistance.

"They are entranced with cowboy boots," their mother reported, and as for the older girls, like big spender on a spree, "They had a ball, trying on everything in the store."

The three-year-old followed form, first declining to try on anything, then clamoring to take the new clothes home.

"Carolanne seems to think she is expected to dance on the stage, and she probably will," her mother said.

"But it probably won't matter."

Robert J. Lynch, director of last year's musical "Sound of Music" will again lead this year's production at Notre Dame. Philip A. Layton will direct the band, and Sister Mary Sarto will train the vocal groups.

Freshman Richard Schilling has captured the lead as Oliver. Other parts include Joseph Gott as Fagan, Ted Semesky as Bill Sikes, P. Rudence Burke as Nancy, Mary Anne Gridley as Bet, and William Rempe as The Artful Dodger.

Dennis Murray and Marie Salafra have assumed duties as student directors. Francis Murray is stage manager, assisted by James Leahy and Mark Woodhouse.

Although Church authorities in Formosa permit apples to be placed on altars on All Souls Day and at Masses for the dead — here in Hong Kong priests, Sisters, and the laity voted this suggestion down as a "fruitless" superstition.
