1000 Years of Proof

Poland, Always Faithful

By PATRICK RILEY
Vatican City — (NC) — Two months after the event, Vatican City's daily newspaper has published a letter of Pope Paul VI to the Polish hierarchy concerning the 1000th anniversary of Poland's conversion to Christianity.

Nothing in the letter itself gives any clue to why the Holy See decided to publish the letter at this time. Nor is there any clue to the even more intriguing problem of why it was not published at the time it was sent, as is customary in letters of this kind.

The letter, as it appears in L'Osservatore Romano, Vatican City newspaper, praised the Polish nation for living up to its historic slogan of "semper fidelis"—always faithful.

"A thousand years of Catholic life! What glory but also what pain on the long path traversed!" the Pope wrote.

"Poland rightly glories in the name of 'bulwark of Christianity,' especially because it has kept intact its spiritual heritage when in some regions of Europe it has unfortunately been torn away, and because it has stood up with courageous resolution in defense of the Christian republic when fearful tempests beat down," he asserted.

Lenten Series At St. Paul's

A series of five Lenten programs, open to the public, will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, East Ave., Rochester, designed to appeal to more than just members of that denomination.

Rev. H. August Kuehl, rector, said the programs will be held Wednesday evenings in Lent at 7:30 p.m. as follows: March 2 — Goldfinger and the Image of Man, by Dr. Stanley Kahrl of the University of Rochester; March 9 — Avon's Wakefield Players in a drama of the Old Testament; March 16 — The Vatican Council and the Image of Man, by Monsignor Richard M. Quinn of St. Andrew's Seminary; March 23 — Science and the Image of Man, by Dr. David Anderson of Oberlin College; and March 30 — the Wakefield Players in Every Man and The Judgement.

CORPUS CHRISTI. Rosary Society meeting at school Monday, March 7, evening. Demonstration by Albert Schum Brothers Florist of spring flowers arrangement and discussion of Society's March 21 rummage sale. Reports to be made on progress of Community Club Awards project.

Pope Paul declared a special jubilee for all Poles at home and abroad.

The letter was non-committal on the question of whether the Pope would go to Poland for the celebration of the Christian millennium in May. The Pope wrote:

"This coming May 3, at the feet of Our Lady of Czestochowa, you will sing your Te Deum and you will renew the public act of consecration to your sweet Mother and Queen. Rest assured that in those circumstances, however solemn, we will be united to you in begging Christ the Lord . . ."
