Opens Tonight Catholic Hoop Tourney Wide Open This Year

What promises to be the most contested Diocesan High School Basketball Tournament in years gets under way this week with two games in Rochester, one at Auburn and one at Geneva.

Friday night (Mar. 4) Cardinal Mooney opposes McQuaid at 8 o'clock on the RIT court, and Notre Dame of Elmira travels to Auburn to face Mt. Carmel on the latter's floor at 7:30 p.m.

On Sunday at 2 p.m., Aquinas and Bishop Kearney clash at RIT, and that night St. Anthony of Padua, Watkins Glen meets St. Francis de Sales in Geneva at 7:30 p.m. on the latter's court.

This weekend's results will determine the pairings for the semi-final round the following weekend. The winner of the Mooney-McQuaid game will face the survivor of the De Sales-Padua contest Friday, Mar. 11.

Sam Trigillo

Only 5-8 in height, Mt. Carmel's Sam Trigillo is a tiger under the boards and one of the best rebounders on his team.

Aquinas-Kearney game against the winner of the Notre Dame-Mt. Carmel tilt at RIT at 3 p.m.

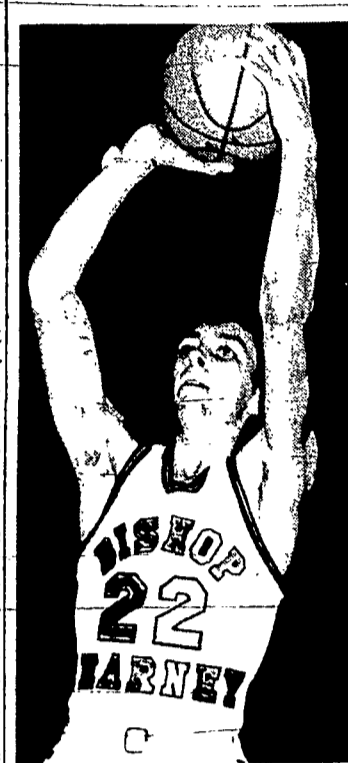

The finals will be played Sunday afternoon, March 20, on the RIT court.

Two strong contenders from the Southern Tier add special flavor to this year's tournament, which has hitherto been dominated by Rochester entries. Elmira's Notre Dame and Padua High of Watkins Glen are the two powerhouses from the Southern Tier. They have split a home-and-home series, and each had excellent seasons. Notre Dame finished at 15-3, while Padua compiled a 13-3 mark.

Best-looking of the Rochester teams at this point is Cardinal Mooney, which wound up with a 15-3 record. Only average-sized, the Cardinals fielded a fast-breaking, scrappy club which improved as the year went on. The other three Rochester clubs, Aquinas, Kearney and McQuaid had up-and-down seasons, each looking great at times and mediocre at others.

Of the other two contenders, DeSales of Geneva could be a dark horse. The Saints hold a 10-6 mark going into their final regular match tonight against Geneva High. Mt. Carmel of Auburn is the only entry with a losing record for the season, but with its prolific point-maker, Jim Gagnier, always a threat, could provide some surprises in tourney play.

Devaney Leads DeSales Over Newark, 63-53

by MIKE WOODEN

Geneva—Paul Devaney's 21 points and 13 rebounds led the DeSales Saints to a 63-53 win over the Newark Reds, Friday night, in a Wayne-Finger Lakes Conference basketball game. The win assures the Saints of their first winning season in the league as they now sport an 8-5 record with one game remaining.

With Devaney hitting for eight points in the opening period and riding a fast break, DeSales was off to a 17-7 advantage at the end of the quarter.

Newark rallied in the second quarter and came within six points of DeSales, but shooting by Devaney and Steve Fitzgerald kept the Saints out of reach. At the half, DeSales was on top of a 35-27 score.

The third period saw the Reds bounce back to tie the score, led by Bramante and Westbrook.

An Anniversary Mass was celebrated at St. Helen's Church at 12:15 p.m. on Sunday, February 27. A reception followed the Mass at the Party House on Beaman Road.

DeSales rallied again and ran the score to a 47-37 lead after three. Both teams hit for 16 in the final period.
Helping Devaney for DeSales were Reid and Roulan who each had 11, and Fitzgerald with 10. Newark was paced by Westbrook and Depauw with 16 and 13 points, respectively.
