

Bishop Casey New Bishop Of Paterson

Joseph R. Brestle, who is administering the Paterson diocese, is scheduled to be in Rochester today to meet Bishop Casey and discuss plans for his coming to Paterson.

Bishop Casey will succeed the late Bishop James J. Navagh of Paterson who died in Rome last autumn at the Vatican.

While he continues his tasks in the Rochester Diocese, Bishop Casey will, of course, look forward to that day, probably this spring, when he takes up his new duties in Paterson.

He will undoubtedly ponder the heavy responsibilities that go with the honor of so high a rank in the Church's life.

Pope John, when he consecrated twelve missionary bishops in 1960, told them what is also true for Bishop Casey as he prepares to go to Paterson —

"Here we see gathered one of the most moving scenes in the life of Christ," Pope John said, "the apostolic mandate — committed to Peter and the first apostles, to go into the whole world and preach the Gospel to all nations... The title which will henceforth be added to your name, Humilis episcopus Ecclesiae Dei, humble bishop of the Church of God, now suffices to confer on you the highest honor for time and for eternity."

"One word more," said St. Paul in his farewell talk to the young bishops of the new Christian communities near Ephesus in the first century (Acts 20:28) — "Keep watch over yourselves and over all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has given you charge, as shepherds of the church of the Lord, which he won for himself by his own blood."

Knowing Bishop Casey, we are confident he will live up to the tasks given him by the Pope — and by God!

Pope Authorizes Mass In Sign Language

Vatican City—(NC)—Permission has been given by Pope Paul for celebration of Mass in sign language, the vernacular of the deaf.

The permission extends to all parts of the Mass in which the recent Vatican Council has allowed the vernacular to be used instead of Latin.

Explaining the new concession, the Vatican liturgy bulletin "Notitiae" said sign language is the "unique way in which the deaf can participate in the liturgy in a truly active way." The publication suggests that aside from the "reading" of Scriptural passages in sign language, other parts of the Mass which may be in the sign language are the Kyrie, Gloria, Creed, Sanctus and Agnus Dei.

Churchman Of the Year

New York—(NC)—Cardinal Spellman will be honored as the Churchman of the Year when Religious Heritage in America makes its annual pilgrimage to Washington, June 23.

Religious Heritage in America, founded in 1961, is dedicated to increasing public awareness of the nation's religious roots and to fostering cooperation among Catholics, Protestants and Jews.

Cardinal Spellman was chosen because of his leadership in the ecumenical movement, according to Lisle M. Ramsey, president of the interfaith, non-profit organization.

Pope Paul Welcomes 'Cordial Dialogue'

Vatican City—(RNS)—A call for "a new, sincere and cordial" dialogue between Catholics and "the separated brethren" was sounded by Pope Paul VI during his midweek general audience in St. Peter's Basilica.

In the past, he said, "an attitude of indifference and disinterest toward those of other faiths" often arose from scant knowledge of the ecumenical questions and from its complexity. This means, he stressed, that instruction must now be given to the faithful "because an attitude of aloofness is no longer lawful regarding what is of such great importance."
